Torah Solomon v. Volkswagen Group of America, Case No. 25SMCV04224

Plaintiff's

Motion to Compel Further Responses to Requests for Production

Hearing

Date: July 20, 2026

Motion

to Compel Further Responses to Requests for Production

On March

2, 2026, Plaintiff filed this Motion to Compel Further Responses to its Request for Production (Set One). Plaintiff received Volkswagen's initial response to its Request for Production of Documents (Set One) on November 14, 2025. Plaintiff argues that Volkswagen's response contained primarily objections and that Volkswagen did not produce responsive documents. (Motion to Compel Further Response, p. 5.) Plaintiff argues that Volkswagen supplemented its discovery responses on February 9, 2026, but that those responses were also inadequate and did not provide a privilege log.

Pursuant to Department P's standing order, Plaintiff scheduled an IDC for May 1, 2026.

On May 1, 2026, the IDC was continued to June 5, 2026. Plaintiff failed to appear for the June 5, 2026, IDC. Based on Volkswagen's representations at the IDC, the Court found that this motion would be moot once the documents are served.

On July 7, 2026, Volkswagen filed opposition contending that the motion is moot because it served the requested information about its warranty procedures on February 3, 2026, and served Plaintiff's service bulletins on July 7, 2026. (Wafer Decl., ¶¶ 3-4.)

On July 13, 2026, Plaintiff filed a reply arguing that Volkswagen did not adequately respond to its RFPs 15-29 because the July 7, 2026, supplemental responses did not contain warranty information. Plaintiff submits Volkswagen's July 7, 2026, supplemental responses, which contain only Technical Service Bulletins and Service Information related to the subject vehicle.

Neither Volkswagen nor Plaintiff has submitted copies of any of the February 3, 2026, discovery responses that Volkswagen states contain the warranty information Plaintiff seeks. The Court therefore cannot determine if those responses satisfied Plaintiffs' RFPs 15-29. The Court continues this motion for thirty days, to August 20, 2026, and orders the Parties to meet and confer on this motion.

If this motion is not moot, the parties are ordered to submit a joint statement five court days before the hearing describing which requests for production remain at issue and attaching the discovery responses relevant to each remaining Request for Production.

This Motion is continued until August 20, 2026. The Joint Statement is due by August 13, 2026.
