[TENTATIVE] ORDER RE: MOTION

TO BE RELIEVED AS COUNSEL—CIVIL

Now before the Court is counsel

ArentFox Schiff LLP's motion to be relieved as counsel for Defendant Ilco Industries, Inc. The papers are signed by Jeffrey B. Weston, Esq., of ArentFox Schiff LLP, and the record reflects that Amanda B. Peterson, Esq., of ArentFox Schiff LLP is listed as counsel of record.

The Court's review shows that counsel's moving papers satisfy the requirements of California Rules of Court, rule 3.1362. The motion and its corresponding declaration and proposed order were properly executed, filed, and served on Plaintiff's counsel and client, Defendant Ilco Industries, Inc., via authorized means, as reflected in the proofs of service accompanying the moving papers. (See Jun. 2, 2026, Filings & attached Proofs of Service.)

As no trial has been set in this action, and as no opposition from Defendant or Plaintiff appears in the record, insufficient prejudice exists here to override relief. (Ramirez v. Sturdevant (1994) 21 Cal.App.4th 904, 915 [court should consider whether the attorney's "withdrawal can be accomplished without undue prejudice to the client's interests"].) Moreover, there is no basis to determine that undue delay or injustice will arise from the Court relieving counsel of representation for Defendant. (See Mandell v. Superior Court (1977) 67 Cal.App.3d 1, 4 [motion should be denied if it will cause undue delay in the proceeding or cause injustice].)

The Court accordingly GRANTS counsel's motion, which shall be effective upon the filing of the proof of service of this signed order upon the client.

Defendant, Ilco Industries, Inc., is ordered to give notice.

Parties who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the court at indicating intention to submit on the tentative as directed by the instructions provided on the court website at www.lacourt.org. If the department does not receive an email indicating the parties are submitting on the tentative and there are no appearances at the hearing, the motion may be placed off calendar. If a party submits on the tentative, the party's email must include the case number and must identify the party submitting on the tentative. If the parties do not submit on the tentative, they should arrange to appear remotely.
