No.

8 - Charlie Perez v. Universal Protection Service, LP

Defendant Universal Protection Service, LP's Motion to Compel Further Responses to Special Interrogatories

Defendant Universal Protection Service, LP moves to compel Plaintiff Charlie Perez to provide further responses to special interrogatories.

Separate Statement

Defendant's motion is procedurally defective. "Any motion involving the content of a discovery request or the responses to such a request must be accompanied by a separate statement. The motions that require a separate statement include a motion: [¶] (2) To compel further responses to interrogatories." (Cal. Rules of Court, rule 3.1345(a).) The separate statement must "provide[] all the information necessary to understand each discovery request and all the responses to it that are at issue. The separate statement must be full and complete so that no person is required to review any other document in order to determine the full request and the full response." (Rule 3.1345(c).) It must include, among other things, "(1) The text of the [subject] request, interrogatory, question, or inspection demand; (2) The text of each response, answer, or objection, and any further responses or answers; (3) A statement of the factual and legal reasons for compelling further responses, answers, or production as to each matter in dispute." (Ibid.)

Defendant did not submit the required separate statement. Instead, Defendant urges the Court to use its meet and confer letter sent on April 17, 2026, at pages 13-18, as an adequate separate statement under Code of Civil Procedure section 2030.300(b)(2).

This subdivision provides “In lieu of a separate statement required under the California Rules of Court, the court may allow the moving party to submit a concise outline of the discovery request and each response in dispute.” (CCP § 2030.300(b)(2).)

The

Court finds Defendant's meet and confer letter an inadequate substitute for a separate statement. Importantly, the April 17th meet and confer letter does not include Plaintiff's updated responses as supplemented on May 11, 2026. In its motion, Defendant admits that “Plaintiff provided updated responses in accordance with Allied's request in its meet and confer, [but] Plaintiff inexplicitly [sic] failed to supplement many responses.” (Motion, at p. 3.) The Court cannot determine, from the meet and confer letter, which supplemental responses remain deficient and why, and which responses were adequately supplemented. Defendant fails to clearly provide this information.

Disposition

Defendant Universal Protection Service, LP's motion to compel further responses to special interrogatories is denied.
