ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

RE: PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Date: 8/25/26

(1:30 PM)

Case: Ihab Karam v. John W. Hatelly, et

al. (26STCV23936)

TENTATIVE RULING:

On 8/3/26, the Court issued an Order to Show Cause to defendant Wayne S. Bowman as to why Bowman should not be enjoined from interfering with plaintiff's access to his property via White Fox Lane and Castlehaven Road to Agua Dulce Canyon Road.

That same date, the Court also issued a Temporary Restraining Order to enjoin Bowman from that same conduct pending the hearing on the Order to Show Cause. Plaintiff was ordered to serve defendant Bowman with the summons and complaint, moving papers for the requested preliminary injunction, and the OSC and TRO by 8/7/26. The Court also set a briefing schedule and scheduled the hearing for the OSC for 8/25/26.

There is no filed proof of service of any of the foregoing upon defendant Bowman. Accordingly, pursuant to CCP 527(d)(3), the temporary restraining order is hereby dissolved. Further, the Court hereby discharges its Order to Show Cause.

The Court notes the filing of a "Stipulation to Continue

Hearing on Preliminary Injunction Scheduled for August 25, 2026 at 1:30 PM for Approximately 60 Day," but such stipulation is by and between plaintiff and the Murray Trust defendants, who are not subject to the OSC. The Court therefore disregards such stipulation.
