Ramirez v. California Landmark

Group 23STCV30834

minute

order 7/27/26

The

court finds that plaintiff has not satisfied the requirement of California Rules of Court, rule 3.1202, subdivision (c), that an applicant for an ex parte order must make an affirmative factual showing in a declaration containing competent testimony based on personal knowledge of irreparable harm, immediate danger, or other statutory basis for granting relief ex parte. The court therefore denies plaintiff's ex parte application.

The

court notes that it is not clear why plaintiff has filed his ex parte application in this case because none of the four deposition subpoenas for production of business records that are the subject of his ex parte application was issued in this case.

The

court orders plaintiff to give notice of this order.
