Case Number: 26PDUD01667 Hearing Date: July 30, 2026 Dept: 534

Background

On June 3, 2026, Plaintiff Esdras Rodas filed this limited unlawful detainer action against Olivetty Maldonado, erroneously sued as Betty Maldonado, and Bryan Maldonado related to real property located at 11117 Archwood Place, North Hollywood, CA 91606.

The case is currently pending in Department R of the Pasadena Courthouse.

Motion

On July 7, 2026, Defendant Olivetty Maldonado filed the instant motion seeking to transfer this action from the Pasadena Courthouse in the Northeast District to the Van Nuys East Courthouse in the Northwest District.

The motion is unopposed. (Code Civ. Proc. § 1005.)

Motion

to Transfer Between Districts

Standard

Superior

Court of Los Angeles County Local Rules, rule 2.3(b)(2) authorizes Department 1 to transfer civil cases from one judicial district to another via a noticed motion on three enumerated grounds: (1) when the case was filed in an improper district; (2) for the convenience of witnesses; or (3) to promote the ends of justice. (SCLAC Local Rule 2.3(b)(2).) A transfer under the Local Rules is discretionary.

The Court Shall Transfer the Action

Defendant
contends the case was improperly filed pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 392(b), which provides: “the proper court location for trial of a proceeding for an unlawful detainer, as defined in Section 1161, is the location where the court tries that type of proceeding that is nearest or most accessible to where the real property that is the subject of the action, or some part thereof, is situated. Otherwise any location of the superior court designated as the proper court in subdivision (a) is a proper court location for the trial. The court may specify by local rule the nearest or most accessible court location where the court tries that type of case.”

“If
it appears from the complaint or affidavit, or otherwise, that the superior court or court location where the action or proceeding is commenced is not the proper court or court location for the trial, the court where the action or proceeding is commenced, or a judge thereof, shall, whenever that fact appears, transfer it to the proper court or court location, on its own motion, or on motion of the defendant, unless the defendant consents in writing, or in open court (consent in open court being entered in the minutes of the court), to the keeping of the action or proceeding in the court or court location where commenced.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 396a(b).)

Superior
Court of Los Angeles County Local Rules, rule 2.3(a)(2) provides “[e]very limited unlawful detainer case must be filed in one of courthouses listed in Appendix 2.D.” Inputting 91606 as the zip code and North Hollywood for the property location, yields a result for the Pasadena Courthouse.

Defendant
notes the Van Nuys Courthouse East is nearer to the property than the Pasadena Courthouse. Defendant also provides a declaration stating the Van Nuys Courthouse East is nearer and more accessible to their home and they are the primary caregiver for their elderly mother and two minor grandchildren with limited financial resources. (Maldonado Decl. ¶¶ 3-7.) Defendant also notes they suffer from medical conditions that make it painful to sit for long periods and the pain would be lessened by the shorter commute to Van Nuys. (Id. ¶ 8.)

The
motion is GRANTED.

Conclusion

Defendant
Maldonado's Motion to Transfer Unlawful Detainer to Northwest District is GRANTED.

The action is ordered reassigned to the Van Nuys Courthouse East, Department H. All hearings currently scheduled in 26PDUD01667 are hereby advanced and vacated.
