RULING

Plaintiff's motion for approval of the Proposition 65 settlement and consent judgment is GRANTED.

The court finds that the settlement was the result of arm's length negotiations by the parties, and that it is in the interest of the public. The settlement requires Defendant Roma to provide Proposition 65 warnings for its DEHP containing vinyl/PVC apparel and vinyl/PVC gloves, and the notice language set forth in the consent judgment complies with the statutory requirements of Proposition 65. The civil penalty of $2,000 is reasonable. The court has also reviewed the attorney's fees request for $26,000 and finds it to be reasonable pursuant to the Private Attorney General Act.

All parties must comply with Marin County Superior Court Local Rules, Rule 2.10(B) to contest the tentative decision. Regardless of whether a party requests oral argument in accordance with Rule 2.10(B), the prevailing party shall prepare an order consistent with the announced ruling as required by Marin County Superior Court Local Rules, Rule 2.11.
