Barrett) (ROA 565) is DENIED. By this motion, Petitioner seeks to compel Ferruzo &amp; Ferruzo to produce documents in response to a subpoena, even though their custodian of records provided an affidavit stating the firm did not have the subpoenaed documents. The motion does not, however, the subject subpoena. Accordingly, the court has nothing upon which to issue an order compelling appearance and production. Further, Ferruzo &amp; Ferruzo's opposition is supported by a declaration from Cheryl L. Barrett attesting neither she nor she nor the firm has any documents responsive to the subpoena. Accordingly, there is nothing for the court to compel. The court will provide notice. |
