#	Case Name	Tentative

Ling Law Group, APC is ordered to give notice of the ruling.
2.	2024-1394324 Meador vs. Bricks and Mortar Entertainment LLC	Plaintiff Jenna Meador's Motion for Order Permitting Filing of Corrected Memorandum of Costs Summary and Worksheet is granted. Plaintiff moves, under CCP section 473, for an order permitting the filing of the corrected memorandum of costs filed on 3/10/26. (See ROA 312, 314.) Plaintiff explains that the "total costs" claimed remains $14,106.07 (as claimed in the original memorandum of costs summary (ROA 266)), but the original memorandum of costs

		summary and worksheet “contained an error in omitting deposition costs at line 4 due to computer error.” (ROA 310 [Not. of Errata at p. 1].) CCP section 473, subdivision (b), provides, in relevant part, that the court may, “upon any terms as may be just, relieve a party or his or her legal representative from a judgment, dismissal, order, or other proceeding taken against him or her through his or her mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 473, subd. (b), emphasis added.) The application “shall be accompanied by a copy of the answer or other pleading proposed to be filed therein, otherwise the application shall not be granted, and shall be made within a reasonable time, in no case exceeding six months, after the judgment, dismissal, order, or proceeding was taken.” (Id.) “The law favors judgments based on the merits, not procedural missteps”; thus, “doubts must be resolved in favor of relief, with an order denying relief scrutinized more carefully than an order granting it.” (Lasalle v. Vogel (2019) 36 Cal.App.5th 127, 134.) The Court finds it is in the interests of justice to grant relief, here, because: Plaintiff’s counsel has provided a reasonable explanation for the circumstances that caused the error; the motion was made within a reasonable time; the total costs claimed have not changed (and the error appears to be largely clerical); and, Defendant will not be unduly prejudiced because it will have a full and fair opportunity to challenge the corrected memorandum. Plaintiff shall give notice of the ruling.
3.	2025-1488244 Oozoonian vs. Innovative Service Technology Management Services, Inc.	Plaintiff Armen Oozoonian’s motion to set aside the dismissal entered on February 19, 2026, is granted. Code of Civil Procedure section 473, subdivision (b) includes a mandatory relief or “attorney fault” provision, which requires the court to vacate a dismissal or order, if a motion or application for relief from the dismissal or order (1) is filed “no more than six months after entry of judgment,” (2) is “in proper form,” and (3) is accompanied by an attorney’s affidavit of fault, unless the court finds that the default judgment or dismissal was not caused by the attorney’s mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or neglect. (Dollase v. Wanu Water, Inc. (2023) 93 Cal.App.5th 1315, 1322-1323.) Additionally, the policy of the law is to have every litigated case tried on its merits and any doubts in applying section 473 must be resolved in favor of the party seeking relief from dismissal. (Fasuyi v. Permatex, Inc. (2008) 167 Cal.App.4th 681, 696.)
