R. Ct. 3.1312.

Non-appearances: If nobody appears for the hearing and the Court has not been notified that all parties submit on the tentative ruling, the Court shall determine whether the matter is taken off calendar or the tentative ruling becomes the final ruling. #	Case Name	Tentative
3	30-2025-01458445 AIC Owner, LLC, vs. Buy Insta Slim, Inc.	On 2/5/2025, a Complaint for unlawful detainer was filed in this matter, which the UD-100 form states is an unlimited civil case as the amount demanded exceeds $35000, but as possession was at issue at the time, the matter was assigned to Dept 61, which is a courtroom of limited jurisdiction regarding unlawful detainer proceedings. There is a related case 30-2025-01475463-CU-BC-CJC assigned to Department C13 with the same parties and subject to the same lease agreement. On 11/5/2025, the third amended complaint was filed in this matter for breach of written lease, breach of guaranty, and common counts, and possession has not been at issue. This Court, Department C61, is a court of limited jurisdiction where this Court hears matters on an expedited basis with a heavy caseload because the issues are related to possession of real property. It is a waste of judicial resources to have two judicial officers working on essentially the same matter in two different departments. As this case is already an unlimited case based on the damages sought and possession is no longer at issue, and there is a related matter assigned to a different department, on the Court's own motion the matter will be referred to Department C23 for reassignment as an unlimited civil case.

10	30-2026-01577309 Yang vs. Byun	The Court has read and considered the Defendant's Demurrer to the Amended Complaint (ROA 30) and the Amended Complaint (ROA 20). The Court finds that Summit Office Park, Inc. v. United States Steel Corp. (hereinafter "Summit"), 639 F.2d 1278 (1981), is distinguishable from the facts in this case. Summit, an indirect purchaser, attempted to file an amended complaint after a Supreme Court decision saying that indirect purchasers had no cause of action under federal antitrust laws, to add two new plaintiffs who were purported to be direct purchasers and to change the cause of action. As indicated by the Summit Court, the circumstances of that case were unique and there was no way in which the plaintiff could properly amend the complaint to give it a cause of action after the Supreme Court decision. This Court finds the holding of the California Supreme Court in Klopstock v. Superior Court of San Francisco (1941) 17 Cal.2d 13 to be more directly on point to the issues in this matter. On July 15, 2026, this Court sustained the Defendant's demurrer, giving the Plaintiff leave to amend the complaint within 10 business days. During the original filing, Choun Yang filed the unlawful detainer proceeding as an individual named on the lease as the housing provider, but the demurrer was originally sustained on July 15, 2026, because a trust is the legal owner of the property. The Amended Complaint shows the plaintiff as Choun Yang, trustee of the trust, which is suing on the same basis for the unlawful detainer action; the amendment does not constitute a statement of a wholly different cause of action. The Court OVERRULES the Demurrer to the Amended Complaint. The Defendant is ordered to file an answer within 5 business days. The Court Clerk is to provide notice of the Court's ruling.
11	30-2026-01584197 Cecilia & John III LLC vs. Thomson	The Court has read and considered the Defendant's Demurrer to the Complaint (ROA 10) and the Complaint (ROA 2) The Court SUSTAINS the Demurrer with leave to amend. Nothing is attached to the Complaint; the Complaint is vague and ambiguous as currently pleaded. The Plaintiff is ordered to amend the Complaint within 5 business days, or the matter will be dismissed. The Court sets an OSC re dismissal on 8/28/2026 at 8:30 AM in Department C61.
