That fails to comply with section 946.6, subdivision (d), and Respondent has not filed any opposition or taken any action to waive this defect or otherwise show it was properly served with the petition. Moreover, Petitioner has not filed any notice or proof of service showing Petitioner gave Respondent notice of today’s hearing on the petition. The court set the hearing and gave notice to Petitioner. Respondent, however, has not yet appeared in this action and therefore has no address of record. As such, the court could not give Respondent notice of today’s hearing. It was Petitioner’s responsibility to provide such notice. California Rules of Court, rule 3.1300(c) requires a proof of service to be filed at least five court days prior to the hearing. Based on the foregoing, the hearing on the petition is CONTINUED as set forth above to allow Petitioner to correct the service issues discussed above and provide proof of service. Petitioner’s counsel is ordered to give notice of this ruling.
