Nor have defendants shown that alleged harm to their professional reputations and client relationships warrant sealing these records. "While commercial harm or embarrassment of a party does not alone justify sealing the entire record of a case [citation], it is appropriate to seal certain records when those particular records contain highly sensitive and potentially embarrassing personal information about individuals." People v. Jackson (2005) 128 Cal.App.4th 1009, 1024. Jackson affirmed a trial court's order sealing certain records to protect the privacy of minors regarding alleged sexual misconduct. Id. at 1021-24. Defendants have not demonstrated that the records they seek to seal contain the type of highly sensitive and potentially embarrassing personal information courts have found supports sealing court records. Defendants also have not demonstrated that the proposed sealing is narrowly tailored. Defendants' proposed sealing of at least 15 entire court filings, including 3 court orders, is decidedly not narrowly tailored. Defendants' contention that only wholesale sealing of these records will suffice is not convincing, but defendants also have not in any event, as discussed above, demonstrated that sealing these court records is otherwise appropriate. Subject to plaintiff's submission of the documents identified below, the court grants the motion as follows: $2,500.00 for enhancement award to plaintiff (not to exceed); $390,000.00 for attorneys' fees (not to exceed); $26,500.00 for attorneys' costs (not to exceed); $12,000.00 for settlement administration fees (not to exceed); and $25,000.00 total PAGA penalties ($18,750.00 to LWDA).

10	Yeganeh v. Amerisave Mortgage Corporation 2022-01274803	Plaintiff's Motion for Preliminary Approval of Class Action and PAGA Settlement The court has reviewed and considered the papers filed in support of plaintiff's motion for preliminary approval of an $873,500 class action and PAGA settlement. The court has the following questions and comments: 1. Were the motion papers served on the LWDA? While counsel's declaration states the motion papers were submitted electronically to the LWDA (Payton Decl. (ROA 134) ¶ 68), the proof of service (ROA 142) does not include the LWDA. Plaintiff must file with the court a proof of service identifying the specific documents served on the LWDA, when plaintiff served the documents and how service was effected. 2. Plaintiff filed an overlong brief without obtaining leave of court. Plaintiff should not do so again. Failure to comply
