Missing corrected I&A referred to in ¶ 8 of the petition.

Clarification is needed: this is a non-cash estate. The court will not ordinarily approve payment of attorney fees in a non-cash estate where petitioners fail to show how fees are to be paid.

The request to approve distribution of the estate must be denied. Petitioners admit distributing the entirety of the estate without any court authorization to do so, citing no authority for such distribution. Such distribution was not only legally improper and unsupportable, it was directly contrary to decedent's will (which limits distribution to decedent's trust) and to the underlying trust (under which Steven Lewis's trust share is preserved for his children (see Art. 12 §§ 1–2). See also Declaration of Harake, filed June 20, 2023, at 1:26–28. The court should not authorize testate distribution contrary to the controlling testamentary instruments.
