

Missing sufficient notice of hearing for petition to determine trust property. The notice previously filed and served is for a July 24 hearing that was rescheduled by the court. Petitioner was notified of the revised court date by an order filed June 2. Missing any notice for the rescheduled July 27 date.

It is recommended the petition to determine trust property be denied, as follows:

Relief is not available under Estate of Heggstad (1993) 16 Cal.App.4th 943 because the properties are not identified in the trust or any trust exhibit.

Relief is not available under Ukkestad v. RBS Asset Finance Inc. (2015) 235 Cal.App.4th 156 depends. In Ukkestad, the court determined that an all-real-property funding clause can satisfy the statute of frauds to create a trust in real property not identified in the writing but which can be defined by extrinsic evidence such as real property records. Id. at 162–163. Petitioner admits in the petition that there is no funding clause of any kind in the trust or any other document.

The pourover will has no effect until probated and, when probated, requires estate administration. "In the absence of any transfer to [a] trust prior to [decedent's] death," assets become part of the decedent's estate despite will language expressing decedent's desire that assets be held in trust. Placencia v. Strazicich (2019) 42 Cal.App.5th 730, 735 & 743-744 (emphasis added). "It [is] error for the court to award [such property] directly to [a] trust in the absence of a probate proceeding." Id., citing Estate of Hart (1957) 151 Cal.App.2d 271, 280–281. See also Prob.C. § 7001. "[A] probate court ha[s] no power to consider the legality of a will until it [is] regularly brought before it by a petition for its probate." Estate of Burnett (1935) 6 Cal.App.2d 116, 123.

These calendar notes are not a tentative ruling by the court on the merits of the petition. They are provided to assist the court and the parties to prepare for the hearing. Local Rule 80.1.4.
