

1.

CASE #	CASE NAME	HEARING NAME
CVRI2204867	JONES vs WANHOO LLC.	MOTION FOR ISSUES EVIDENCE OR TERMINATING SANCTIONS

Tentative Ruling:

DENY Defendant's Motion for issue, evidentiary, and terminating sanctions.

GRANT Defendant's Motion for monetary sanctions against Plaintiff's counsel, in the reduced, reasonable amount of $510.

Defendant now moves for issue, evidentiary, terminating, or monetary sanctions against Plaintiff Maegan Elizabeth Jones based on her failure to comply with the Court's Order of May 22, 2026. (The Court ordered Plaintiff to serve further verified responses, without objection, within 20 days.) In opposition, Plaintiff Maegan Jones states that she served supplemental responses on May 20, 2026, two days before the Court issued its Order.

It is evident to the Court that Plaintiff Maegan Jones is confused about which Court Order the Defendant is attempting to enforce. Jones contends that her supplemental responses, served on May 20, 2026, comply with the Court's Order of May 1, 2026, which instructed the parties to meet and confer on the then-pending discovery motions. There is no evidence that she has complied with the Court Order of May 22, 2026. The problem is that Defendant's meet and confer letter dated June 26, 2026, fails to specify which Court Order Defendant is seeking to enforce. Defendant merely attached copies of the Court's Tentative Rulings of May 11, 13, 19, and 22, 2026, and a Notice of Ruling dated May 1, 2026., without making any specific reference as to which Court Order is at issue here. To the extent that Jones argues that her May 20, 2026, supplemental responses preemptively complied with the Court's Order, the supplemental responses contain objections in direct violation of the Court's Order.

Due to Jones' confusion with the flurry of discovery motions and Orders, terminating and issue sanctions are not warranted. A lesser, monetary sanction is appropriate here. In addition, there is no evidence that Maegan Jones herself knew of this discovery dispute or Court Order. By contrast, Plaintiff's counsel does not dispute that he disobeyed the Court's Order of May 22, 2026, by failing to serve further verified responses. Counsel's own evidence shows that he was aware of the Court's Order as of June 26, 2026, when Defendant sent counsel a copy of the Tentative Ruling.

Accordingly, the Court will award monetary sanctions in the reduced, reasonable amount of $510 (1.0 hour of work at $450/hour + $60 filing fee) against Plaintiff's counsel, and payable to Defense counsel within 30 days.

The motions for terminating sanctions currently set for September 3, 9, 10, 11, 16, 17 and 18 are hereby continued to SEPTEMBER 22, 2026, at 8:30am, D-4.