

¶183-184 merely provide legal statements of the Fourth and Fourteenth Amendment. There are no facts here alleged. The Court SUSTAINS the demurrer.

Leave to Amend

While Plaintiffs request leave to amend, they have the burden to articulate a basis to amend. (Shaeffer v. Califia Farms, LLC (2020) 44 Cal.App.5th 1125, 1145.) Plaintiffs assert that they can amend the complaint to include additional factual allegations but fail to identify those factual allegations. The Court SUSTAINS the demurrer without leave to amend.

CASE #	CASE NAME	HEARING NAME
CVRI2504100	S. vs SENTINEL OFFENDER SERVICES, LLC	MOTION TO STRIKE 2ND AMENDED COMPLAINT

Tentative Ruling: The Court DENIES the Motion to Strike. A motion to strike may be applied to any irrelevant, false or improper matter, or any pleading not drawn or filed in conformity with the laws of the state, court rule, or court order. (Code Civ. Proc., § 436.) The grounds must appear on the face of the pleading or judicial notice. (Id. at § 437.)

Here, Plaintiffs filed their SAC on 6/1/26. The court, on 4/27/26, granted 30 days leave to amend and ordered Defendants to give notice. While Defendants contend they gave notice, nothing in the court docket demonstrates that they gave notice.

Even assuming arguendo that the SAC is untimely, the Court may accept an untimely amendment without a prior noticed motion. (Harlan v. Department of Transportation (2005) 132 Cal.App.4th 868, 873-875.) The Court exercises its discretion and allows the SAC. The Court DENIES the Motion to Strike.
