CVPS2500350	JONES VS YOULAND INC	MOTION FOR LEAVE TO FILE 3 RD AMENDED COMPLAINT OF PHYLLIS JONES

Tentative Ruling: C.C.P. §473 authorizes the court to grant leave to amend any pleading “in furtherance of justice, and on such terms as may be proper.” A motion for relief under CCP § 473 is addressed to the sound discretion of the trial court, and the exercise of that discretion will not be disturbed on appeal unless there is a clear showing that it was abused. (Carroll v. Abbott Laboratories, Inc. (1982) 32 Cal.3d 892, 897-898; Record v. Reason (1999) 73 Cal.App.4th 472, 486.) 3.1324(b).

California courts have developed “a policy of great liberality in allowing amendments at any stage of the proceeding so as to dispose of cases upon their substantial merits where the authorization does not prejudice the substantial rights of others.” (Dunzweiler v. Superior Court (1968) 267 Cal.App.2d 569, 576.) Thus, if a motion is timely and the amended pleading will not prejudice the opposing party, it is error not to allow leave to amend. (Kittredge Sports Co. v. Superior Court (1989) 213 Cal.App.3d 1045, 1048; Morgan v. Superior Court (1959) 172 Cal.App.2d 527, 530 [“If the motion to amend is timely made and the granting of the motion will not prejudice the opposing party, it is error to refuse permission to amend and where the refusal also results in a party being deprived of the right to assert a meritorious cause of action or a meritorious defense, it is not only error but an abuse of discretion”].)

While courts will occasionally deny leave to amend when the motion is brought on the eve of trial (Magpali v. Farmers Group, Inc. (1996) 48 Cal.App.4th 471, 487-88; Nelson v. Specialty Records, Inc. (1970) 11 Cal.App.3d 126, 139-40), “it is an abuse of discretion to deny leave to amend where the opposing party was not misled or prejudiced by the amendment.” (Kittredge Sports Co., 213 Cal.App.3d 1045, 1048; see also Atkinson v. Elk Corp. (2003) 109 Cal.App.4th 739, 761.) Prejudice can occur when an amendment “open[s] up an entirely new field of inquiry without any satisfactory explanation as to why this major change in point of attack had not been made long before trial.” (Magpali, 48 Cal.App.4th 471, 487) or when allowing amendment would result in a delay of trial, loss of critical evidence, or added preparation expenses. (Solit v. Tokai Bank (1999) 68 Cal.App.4th 1435, 1448.) But the fact that the amendment involves a change in legal theory, or will cause a more favorable result for the plaintiff, is not prejudice. (Hirsa v. Superior Court (1981) 118 Cal.App.3d 486, 490.)

A motion for leave to amend must identify by page, paragraph and line number any additions to and deletions from the prior pleading. (C.R.C. rule 3.1324(a)(2)-(3).) Further, the motion must be accompanied by a declaration and must specify: (1) the effect of the amendment; (2) why the amendment is proper and necessary; (3) when the facts giving rise to the amended allegations were discovered; and (4) the reasons why the amendment was not made earlier. (C.R.C. rule 3.1324(b)(1)-(4).)

Here, Plaintiffs’ declaration states “The facts giving rise to this new cause of action were discovered on or about July 15, 2025, during review of the Deed of Trust and Purchase Agreement documents, revealing the discrepancy.” (Declaration of Richard Scott ¶ 6). As to any delay in acting upon the new information, Plaintiffs’ indicated “The request was not made earlier because the specific facts supporting this separate breach were not known or fully understood until the recent discovery mentioned above. Plaintiffs acted diligently upon discovering the information.” (Declaration ¶ 7). The first amended complaint was filed by Plaintiffs on 4.16.25. The Second Amended Complaint was filed on 9.15.25. The Motion for Leave to File a Third Amended Complaint was filed on 6.29.26. The delay of almost a year by Plaintiffs to seek to include the proposed causes of action contained within the Third Amended Complaint, as well as failure to address the information discovered in July of 2025 in the SAC filed 4 months after said discovery, does not merit leave to amend. Additionally, the court finds that granting leave would be prejudicial to Defendants, as pointed out in the opposition. Plaintiffs seek to plead claims previously dismissed following a demurrer without leave to amend, and attempt to include two new defendants who were purchasers following an expungement order of the lis pendens. Lastly, while Plaintiffs' statement of additions and deletions filed on 8.05.26 does a more thorough job of complying with CRC 3.1324(a), the declaration of Plaintiff Scott fails to provide sufficient information pursuant to CRC 3.1324(b) for the court to grant leave to amend.

Plaintiffs' Motion for Leave to File a Third Amended Complaint DENIED.

Trial Setting Conference confirmed for 11.19.26.

CVPS2602291	BROWN VS INNOVATIVE AUTOMOTIVE HOLDINGS LLC	MOTION TO COMPEL ARBITRATION BY INNOVATIVE AUTOMOTIVE HOLDINGS LLC

Tentative Ruling: Upon the petition/motion of a party to an agreement to arbitrate, the court must grant a petition to compel arbitration unless it finds: no written agreement to arbitrate exists; the right to compel arbitration has been waived; grounds exist for revocation of the agreement; or litigation is pending that may render the arbitration unnecessary or create conflicting rulings on common issues. (CCP § 1281.2.) A proceeding to compel arbitration is in essence a suit in equity to compel specific performance of a contract. (Freeman v. State Farm Mutual Auto Insurance Co. (1975) 14 Cal.3d 473, 479.) The petition/motion to compel must set forth the provisions of the written agreement and the arbitration clause verbatim, or such provisions must be attached and incorporated by reference. (CRC rule 3.1330; see also Condee v. Longwood Mgmt. Corp. (2001) 88 Cal.App.4th 215, 218–19.) The party seeking arbitration must prove the existence of the arbitration agreement. (Pinnacle Museum Tower Assn. v. Pinnacle Market Development (US), LLC (2015) 55 Cal.4th 223, 236.) The burden then shifts to the opposing party to prove any defense such as unconscionability. (Id.)

“In ruling on a petition to compel arbitration, the trial court may consider evidence on factual issues relating to the threshold issue of arbitrability Parties may submit declarations when factual issues are tendered with a motion to compel arbitration.” (Engineers & Architects Assn. v. Community Development Dept. (1994) 30 Cal.App.4th 644, 653.) In the summary proceedings on a motion to compel arbitration, “the trial court sits as a trier of fact, weighing all the affidavits, declarations, and other documentary evidence, as well as oral testimony received at the court's discretion, to reach a final determination.” (Engalla v. Permanente Medical Group, Inc. (1997) 15 Cal.4th 951, 972.)

The California Supreme Court recently explained in Fuentes v. Empire Nissan, Inc. (2026) 19 Cal.5th 93, 110, that relying on a policy favoring arbitration “as an interpretive
