I. Motion for Reconsideration

Here, Defendant does not provide any new or different facts, circumstances, or law to warrant reconsideration of the previous motion. Defendant relies on the fact that she paid Plaintiff an additional $5,785.20 on June 8, 2026. That fact was known to the parties before the court's ruling on June 11, 2026. There is no reason this information could not have been presented to the court at or before the June 11, 2026, hearing. However, even if this information had been presented to the Court, the court's ruling on the motions would have been the same as the court's ruling did not rely on the fact that Defendant had yet to satisfy the judgment in full. Further still, Plaintiff asserts the Judgment has not yet been paid in full and an uncontested balance of over $14,000 remains due and owing. (Medioni Decl. ¶27.)

Motion for Reconsideration is DENIED.

II. Motion to Tax Costs

Memo #3 seeks an additional $9,805 in costs. The costs are solely for attorney fees incurred from February 25, 2026 to June 11, 2026.

Defendant challenges the new Memo of Costs as violating CCP §685.040, being time-barred because the judgment has been paid in full, Plaintiff's counsel lacked corporate authorization to incur the requested fees pursuant to CC&R Section 12.1.7, and the fees requested are unreasonable.
