| CVPS2505545 | WELLS FARGO BANK, N.A.VS CABALLERO | MOTION FOR JUDGMENT ON THEPLEADINGS ON COMPLAINT OFWELLS FARGO BANK, N.A. BY WELLSFARGO BANK, N.A. |

Tentative Ruling: Plaintiff Wells Fargo Bank, N.A.'s unopposed motion for judgment on the pleadings is GRANTED, as is the request for judicial notice filed in support thereof.

A motion for judgment on the pleadings is properly granted in a plaintiff's favor if "the complaint states facts sufficient to constitute a cause or causes of action against the defendant and the answer does not state facts sufficient to constitute a defense to the complaint." (CCP 438(c)(1)(A).) In ruling on the motion, the court is confined to the face of the pleadings and matters required to be judicially noticed. (CCP 438(d).)

Here, plaintiff's complaint alleges a cause of action for breach of contract (written). This cause of action requires plaintiff to show: (1) the existence of a contract, (2) its performance under the contract or excuse for nonperformance, (3) defendant Julieta Caballero's breach, and (4) resulting damages. (Oasis West Realty, LLC v. Goldman (2011) 51 Cal.4th 811, 821.) The complaint and matters judicially noticed, including the discovery requests deemed admitted for all purposes in this litigation (see Arce v. Kaiser Foundation Health Plan, Inc. (2010) 181 Cal.App.4th 471, 485), show all four elements: the existence of a credit card agreement between plaintiff and defendant; plaintiff's performance of its duties under the agreement, including issuing a card to defendant and providing monthly statements; defendant's breach of the agreement by failing to make the required payments; and damages in the amount of $9,608.74. Nothing in defendant's answer negates any of these elements. The court therefore orders entry of judgment in favor of plaintiff and against defendant.

All future hearing dates are VACATED.

| CVPS2603576 | LEVI VS MESH | RESPONDENT'S MOTION FORATTORNEY FEES |

Tentative Ruling: Respondent Ronald Mesh's motion for attorney fees is GRANTED IN PART.

A court has discretion to award attorney fees to the prevailing party in a civil harassment restraining order matter. (CCP 527.6(s).) Any such fee award must be based on a reasonable number of hours worked and a reasonable hourly rate for the local community. (PLCM Group v. Drexler (2000) 22 Cal.4th 1084, 1095.)

Here, respondent seeks $14,750.00 in fees based on 29.5 hours of his attorney's work at a rate of $500.00 per hour. The court deems the number of hours expended on this simple restraining
