

must be made about past or existing facts; statements regarding future events are merely deemed opinions.” (Neu-Visions Sports, Inc. v. Soren/McAdam/Bartells (2000) 44 Cal.App.4th 303, 309-310.) The statement that Plaintiff “met the qualifications necessary to succeed” is a statement of the future, which is merely an opinion, and not an actionable misrepresentation. Sustain the demurrer.

3.

CASE #	CASE NAME	HEARING NAME
CVRI2504126	CARONNA VS CALIFORNIA BAPTIST UNIVERSITY	MOTION TO STRIKE 3RD AMENDED COMPLAINT

Tentative Ruling:

DENY as moot.

The court has sustained Defendant’s demurrer in its entirety, rendering the motion to strike as moot.

4.

CASE #	CASE NAME	HEARING NAME
CVRI2505820	REESE VS JAMES	MOTION TO APPOINT APPRAISER TO DETERMINE FAIR MARKET VALUE UNDER PARTITION OF REAL PROPERTY ACT

Tentative Ruling:

GRANT