Here, plaintiff successfully prevailed on the motion for summary judgment it prosecuted against defendant Alva Glass. The court deems both the number of hours expended on this matter and the rates charged to be reasonable. Defendant is accordingly ordered to pay plaintiff $19,732.46 in attorney fees and costs. Payment to be made within 15 days of this order.

CVPS2506056	MIDLAND CREDIT MANAGEMENT INC. VS CORONA	MOTION TO SET ASIDE DEFAULT AND DEFAULT JUDGMENT

Tentative Ruling: Defendant Jessica Corona's motion to set aside default judgment is DENIED.

Defendant contends the court should set aside the default judgment against her because she failed to answer the complaint due to "mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect." (CCP 473(b).) Specifically, she claims she did not file an answer because she was waiting to do so until plaintiff Midland Credit Management Inc. responded to her request for validation and documentation of her debt. But plaintiff responded to defendant's request in a letter dated 9/23/2025. The court thus cannot find defendant's failure to answer the complaint was due to the mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect she claims.
