OTHER REVIEW HEARING

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Chasen Paul David Gonzales (Father) and Chipongolo Mulenga (Mother) have one minor child together, Ethan (DOB 7/22/2023, age 2). Father lives in San Francisco; Mother lives in Walnut Creek. On 12/4/2024, a 4-year Domestic Violence Restraining Order was issued against Father, protecting Mother.
- 2) On 10/2/2025, the Court found Father met his burden of overcoming the Family Code section 3044 presumption against joint custody but found it was in Ethan's best interest for Mother to retain sole legal and physical custody, with parenting time for Father from Thursday to Friday during Week A and Thursday to Sunday during Week B (29% timeshare). The Court expressed concern about the parties' poor communication and ordered them to continue participating in coparenting counseling.
- 3) On 1/6/2026, Father filed a request for joint legal custody, a two-phase transition into a 2-2-5-5 parenting time schedule, a holiday schedule, and a review hearing in 6 months.

- 1 4) Mother filed a response setting forth a proposed holiday schedule and requesting a right of first
2 refusal and modification of the custody exchange location. Father filed a reply disputing Mother's 3 assertions.
- 4 5) On 4/21/2026, the Court maintained the custody and parenting time order, set a holiday schedule,
5 granted Father's request to travel with Ethan out of state from 7/1/2026 to 7/7/2026, and set a 6 review hearing for 7/21/2026.
- 7 6) Mother recently retained new counsel, who has requested a brief continuance of the 7/21/2026
8 hearing based on counsel's unavailability on that date and her need for time to prepare and 9 engage in meet and confer efforts with Father's counsel. Father opposes this request, stating there
10 are issues such as Ethan's school, parenting time, and access to medical records that he states
11 require immediate attention. Mother has filed a supplemental declaration disputing Father's 12 assertions regarding the urgency of this matter.

13 B. Findings and Orders

- 14 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child
15 Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in 16 violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor
17 child is the United States.
- 18 2) The Court continues the matter to 9/1/2026 at 9AM in Department 404. All prior orders 19 including the order for both parties to have the right to view all records regarding Ethan remain in 20 full force and effect. Pending the 9/1/2026 hearing, the parties shall meet and confer regarding the 21 issues raised in the parties' update declarations. The parties may file and serve brief update 22 declarations no longer than 5 pages at least 10 days before the 9/1/2026 hearing only if there are 23 significant updates since the filing of their last declarations.
- 24 3) The Court will prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

OTHER REVIEW HEARING

TENTATIVE RULING

The parties are ordered to appear in-person or via Zoom video at 9AM on 7/21/2026 in Department 404. If a party chooses to appear by Zoom, that party must abide by the Notice and Instructions for Remote Appearance in San Francisco Family Court set forth above.

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Francisco Salazar (Father) and Respondent Celisse Berumen (Mother) have one minor child together, Frankie (DOB: 2/26/2024, age 2).
- 2) On 10/26/2025, Father filed a request for joint legal custody and sole physical custody to Mother, with a step-up parenting schedule for him. He stated he had not seen Frankie since 11/15/2024 when he saw him for one hour. Mother opposed the request and sought sole legal and physical custody with a one-hour supervised visit for Father every other week, alcohol and drug testing requirements, anger management classes, and parenting classes until Father “can prove sobriety and consistency.” Mother stated Father was physically, verbally, and emotionally abusive during their relationship and engaged in unsafe behavior as a parent.

- 1 3) On 1/29/2026, the Court ordered weekly one-hour supervised visits for Father at Rally Family
2 Visitation Services (Rally), with each party to pay their own way. The Court scheduled a review
3 hearing for 4/23/2026, which was continued to 7/21/2026 because Rally visits had not yet started.
- 4 4) On 7/9/2026, Mother filed an update declaration describing the 3 Rally visits Father has had 5 stating 6/15/2026. She asks the Court to maintain the current order, for Father to pay for the Rally
6 visits, and for him to have weekly substance abuse tests through SoberLink or another provider.
- 7 5) On 7/10/2026, Father filed a declaration stating he completed a Court-ordered 4-hour parenting
8 class as well as additional programs. He attaches a certificate of achievement for an Addiction
9 medicine and Recovery Services program and a “Later Recovery” program. He describes the 3
10 visits he has had and states that Frankie’s comfort level has increased with each visit. He states 11 they are enjoying the visits and asks for a step-up parenting time schedule.

REQUEST FOR ORDER FOR ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS, MOTION TO DEEM ADMITTED, TERMINATING OR ISSUE SANCTIONS.

TENTATIVE RULING

The parties are ordered to appear in-person or via Zoom video. The Court is not currently prepared to rule on Wife's 5/18/2026 Request for Order because the Court needs to first hear from Wife regarding (a) the basis for her belief that Husband is currently using the address of PO Box 40785 San Francisco, CA 94110 and (b) the basis for her belief that Husband is currently using the email address of raymendoza2009@gmail.com. Wife is ordered to appear at the 7/21/2026 hearing to provide these explanations. Wife shall also be prepared to explain where she had the Earnings Assignment Order (filed 1/24/2019) served and where she believes Husband currently works. Wife shall further be prepared to explain whether she knows where Husband currently lives. After the Court hears Wife's explanation regarding these issues, the Court may issue additional orders regarding service and also intends to set a future hearing date for Wife's 5/18/2026 Request for Order.

If a party chooses to appear by Zoom, that party must abide by the Notice and Instructions for Remote Appearance in San Francisco Family Court set forth above.

1 A. Procedural History

- 2 1) Petitioner Tanya Mendoza (Wife) and Respondent Aurelio Mendoza Jr. (Husband) married on 3 1/25/1987 and separated on 1/12/2013, for a marriage of 24 years and 11 months. Wife is 4 currently represented by attorney Alexander Jones. Husband is currently self-represented.
- 5 2) At the hearing on 11/6/2018, per the Findings and Order After Hearing filed 12/5/2018, Judge
6 Darwin found that Wife “is making no income and is destitute” while Husband “is making over 7 $10,000 gross per month from two jobs.” The Court ordered Husband to pay Wife $3,292 per 8 month in temporary spousal support.
- 9 3) There have been no subsequent orders modifying or terminating the temporary spousal support 10 order.
- 11 4) On 1/24/2019, an Earnings Assignment Order was entered for the temporary spousal support 12 payments.
- 13 5) Per the Proof of Service filed 2/21/2019, the Earnings Assignment Order was mailed to Husband 14 at PO Box 40785 in San Francisco, CA.
- 15 6) On 5/12/2022, the parties and their counsel entered into a Joint Stipulation to vacate a Mandatory 16 Settlement Conference set for 5/13/2022 because, “The parties have reached an agreement and 17 will be submitting judgment documents to the court.”
- 18 7) Following entry of the May 2022 Joint Stipulation, no Judgment was ever submitted to the Court, 19 nor was any Judgment ever entered.
- 20 8) On 4/25/2024, Husband’s attorney filed a Motion to be Relieved as Counsel. Husband’s attorney 21 indicated that service of her motion had been served to the client’s last known address, but 22 Husband’s attorney was unable to confirm the address is current despite making efforts to calling
23 Husband at his last known telephone number and emailing Husband at his last known email 24 address.
- 25 9) Per the Proof of Service filed 4/25/2024, Husband’s attorney’s motion to be relieved as counsel 26 was mailed to Husband at 980 Hampshire St. San Francisco, CA 94110.
- 27 10) At the 7/18/2024 hearing (per the Findings and Order After Hearing filed 8/8/2024), Judge Costin
28 adopted her Tentative Ruling without objection and granted Husband’s attorney’s request to be 29

1 relieved as counsel, after finding that service of Husband's attorney's moving papers had been
2 effectuated under California Rules of Court, rule 3.1362(d)(1)(b).

3 11) On 1/2/2026, Wife filed a Motion to Compel Discovery wherein Wife states she served discovery
4 requests on Husband and never received a response. In her motion, Wife states that she mailed
5 her discovery requests to PO Box 40785 San Francisco, CA 94110 because she believes that is 6 Husband's "actual address" and also emailed her discovery requests to Husband's email address
7 raymendoza2009@gmail.com. Wife also states that Husband's discovery requests were mailed to 8 980 Hampshire St. San Francisco, CA. However, Husband did not serve any responses. Wife 9 mentions in her motion that she lives off of the spousal support ordered in the case.

10 12) At the 2/6/2026 hearing (per the Findings and Order After Hearing filed 2/23/2026), Judge Gold
11 granted Wife's motion to compel and ordered Husband to provide the documents listed below.
12 Judge Gold also ordered Husband to pay Wife $2,040 in sanctions no later than 2/27/2026.

- 13 a. All statements for U.A. Local 467 Defined Benefit Plan and Defined Contribution Plan in 14 the name of Respondent from January 2013 through the present day.
- 15 b. All statements for U.A. Local 38 Defined Benefit Plan and Defined Contribution Plan in 16 the name of Respondent as of January 2013 through the present day.
- 17 c. All statements for Chase Checking Account ending in 8493 from January 2013 through 18 September 2025.
- 19 d. All statements for Chase Checking Account ending in 9120 from January 2013 through 20 September 2025.
- 21 e. All statements for SF Credit Union Checking Account ending in S23 from January 2013
22 through September 2025.
- 23 f. Respondent's last three (3) filed Federal Tax returns.
- 24 g. A copy of any Deed or Document purporting to assign Respondent an interest in real 25 property, whether in fee simple, contingent, or otherwise, from 1987 to the present day.
- 26 h. All statements for any retirement accounts in the name of Respondent (other than U.A.
27 Local 467 and U.A. Local 38), including but not limited to any 401k, IRA and Roth IRA 28 from January 2013 through September 2025.

- 1 i. All statements for any life insurance (whether term or whole) from January 2013 through
2 September 2025.

3 13) Now on for hearing is Wife's Request for Order filed 5/18/2026. Wife asks that the Court order
4 terminating sanctions for Husband's non-compliance with the 2/23/2026 order and strike
5 Husband's Response. In the alternative, Wife seeks issue sanctions against Husband so that he 6 cannot offer or refute evidence regarding the issues of: (a) the community value of U.A. Local 7 467 and U.A. Local 38 Defined Benefit Plans, (b) the community value of Chase Checking
8 Account ending in 8493, Chase Checking Account ending in 9120, and SF Credit Union
9 Checking Account ending in S23; (c) Husband's income for spousal support and attorney fee
10 award purposes; (d) Husband's separate property claims for any real property; (e) Husband's 11 separate property claims for any life insurance policy. Wife also asks that her Request for 12 Admissions Set No. 1 (summarized below) be deemed admitted. Wife further seeks $2,200 in 13 attorney fees be ordered paid by Husband for having to bring this request.

- 14 a. REQUEST NO. 1: ADMIT that the entire balance of the U.A. Local 467 Defined Benefit 15 Plan and Defined Contribution Plan held in your name, as of January 12, 2013, was 16 community property.
- 17 b. REQUEST NO. 2: ADMIT that the entire balance of U.A. Local 38 Defined Benefit Plan
18 and Defined Contribution Plan held in your name, as of January 12, 2013, was 19 community property.
- 20 c. REQUEST NO. 3: ADMIT that the entire balance of Chase Checking Account ending in 21 8493 as of January 12, 2013, was community property.
- 22 d. REQUEST NO. 4: ADMIT that the entire balance of SF Credit Union Checking Account 23 ending in S23 as of January 12, 2013, was community property.
- 24 e. REQUEST NO. 5: ADMIT that the current amount of spousal support, $3,292 per month, 25 would be an appropriate amount to be entered as a final judgment in this matter.
- 26 f. REQUEST NO. 6: ADMIT that it would be appropriate to enter a final judgment in this 27 matter which orders spousal support on an indefinite basis.
- 28 g. REQUEST NO. 7: ADMIT that Petitioner Tanya Mendoza is totally disabled and so 29 cannot be gainfully employed.

1 14) Per the Proofs of Service filed 7/8/2026, Wife's Request for Order was mailed and emailed to the 2 following addresses on 6/18/2026. Wife states in her Request for Order that she believes that
3 Husband's actual address is PO Box 40785 San Francisco, CA (but does not state the basis for her
4 belief). Wife also states that she knows Husband still uses the email address
5 raymendoza2009@gmail.com "to this day" but does not state how she knows this. Wife states
6 that the Request for Order was mailed to the 980 Hampshire St. address because that is the 7 address listed by Husband's former attorney in the motion to be relieved as counsel. Wife states
8 that the Request for Order was also mailed to the 900 Hampshire St. address because that is one
9 of the addresses listed on the Court's Proof of Service for the Findings and Order After Hearing
10 relieving Husband's attorney (the Court notes that the 980 Hampshire St. address is also listed in 11 that Proof of Service).

- 12 a. 900 Hampshire St. San Francisco, CA 94110
- 13 b. 980 Hampshire St. San Francisco, CA 94110
- 14 c. PO Box 40785 San Francisco, CA 94110
- 15 d. raymendoza2009@gmail.com

16 15) Husband did not file a Responsive Declaration.

17 B. Findings and Order

18 1) The Court is not currently prepared to rule on Wife's 5/18/2026 Request for Order because 19 the Court needs to first hear from Wife regarding (a) the basis for her belief that Husband
20 is currently using the address of PO Box 40785 San Francisco, CA 94110 and (b) the basis

REQUEST FOR ORDER RE: CHANGE OF CHILD SUPPORT

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Nicole Salvador (Mother) and Respondent Nicholas Torres (Father) married on 5/29/2015 and separated on 3/1/2018, for a marriage of 2 years and 9 months. The parties have two minor children, Noah (DOB: 10/26/2008, age 17) and Elias (DOB: 7/1/2010, age 16). Mother is currently represented by attorney Natalie Gomez. Father is currently represented by attorney Andrew Wu.
- 2) On 9/12/2018, the Court entered a Stipulated Judgment. The Judgment requires Father to pay Mother $0 (which the parties acknowledged in the Judgment is a below-guideline child support order) and requires the parties to share equally all uninsured medical expenses of the children. The Judgment also includes an agreement to terminate the Court's jurisdiction to award spousal support to either party. The Judgment further provides that the parties will share joint legal and joint physical custody of their children, and that the children will spend 50% of their time in each parent's care. The guideline child support calculation attached to the parties' Judgment includes

1 income for Father of $4,458 per month and income for Mother of $8,170 per month, and shows a 2 guideline child support amount of $530 per month.

3 3) Now on for hearing is Father's Request for Order filed 2/5/2026 seeking a guideline child support
4 order. Father states that he currently teaches two classes at San Francisco State University during 5 the 2025-2026 academic year, and also coaches high school track and field for Stuart Hall. Father 6 states he previously taught three classes during the 2024-2025 academic year, but lost a class at 7 SFSU during the second half of 2025. Father also states that he used to teach classes at City
8 College of San Francisco, but he hasn't done so since 2021 because his contract was not renewed.
9 Father states, "Teaching at SFSU and CCSF on a year-to-year contract basis (without tenure) has 10 proven to be an extremely difficult career path for me in recent years, so that's why, in the 11 autumn of 2024, I matriculated as a doctoral student at the University of San Francisco..., with 12 studies focusing on the field of education, that I hope to complete by mid-year in 2028, which 13 will eventually lead to an Ed.D degree. After I finish my studies at USF, it's my intention to 14 secure a more permanent and stable job in the teaching profession than the ones I now have."

15 4) On 7/7/2026, Mother filed a Responsive Declaration and Memorandum of Points and Authorities.
16 Mother asks that the Court deny Father's request for child support. In the alternative, if the Court
17 is inclined to award Father child support, Mother asks the Court to consider Father's earning 18 capacity, make a downward deviation from guideline under Family Code sections 4056 and 19 4057(b), apply a hardship deduction to both parties, order that the parties share the children's 20 uninsured medical expenses equally, and apportion any other add-on expenses equitably 21 (crediting those Mother "has paid without contribution" from Father). Mother states that during 22 the eight years since entry of Judgment, the parties have resolved disagreements regarding 23 financial support and custody without litigation. Mother states the only change which has 24 occurred since entry of Judgment is Father's decision to return to school to pursue a doctorate
25 degree which Father will not complete until mid-2028, which is after Noah will reach the age of 26 majority (he turns 18 in October 2026) and approximately the same time Elias will reach the age
27 of majority (he turns 18 in July 2028). Mother states that the source of funding for Father's tuition
28 remains unknown and is the subject of pending discovery. Mother argues that Father's tuition
29 expense comes at a cost to the children, given Father's admission that he has minimized his work

1 hours to attend classes. Mother attaches as Exhibit D to her Responsive Declaration copies of job
2 listings in the Bay Area Adjunct Faculty positions at Saint Mary's College of California which
3 require "a terminal degree in Kinesiology or a closely related field and have a recent publication
4 record in the field, or a Master's degree in Kinesiology or a closely related field and have at least 5 five years of current, relevant professional experience."

6 5) On 7/7/2026, Mother filed an Income and Expense Declaration. Mother states that she is 38 years
7 old and works as a senior legal analyst for the California Department of Justice. Mother states
8 that she works 40 hours per week and earns on average $6,770 per month. Mother has three 9 children, Noah and Elias with Father, and a one-year-old daughter Tahlia with her current spouse.

10 6) On 7/16/2026, Father filed a Reply Memorandum of Points and Authorities. Father states that the 11 job postings provided by Mother do not show that Father has an actual opportunity to obtain those 12 positions, that he would likely be hired, that the class schedules would be compatible with those 13 of his current employment and/or parenting responsibilities, or that the positions would produce 14 income materially greater than his combined earnings from his current part-time employment.
15 Rather, the postings indicate that a terminal degree, which is precisely what Father is currently 16 pursuing, is one pathway to meeting the qualifications for at least some of the open academic 17 positions in Father's field. The postings also indicate that graduate-level teaching effectiveness is 18 strongly preferred. However, Father's teaching experience has only been at the undergraduate 19 level. Father also states that he should not be expected to leave existing employment within the 20 California State University system, where he has a vesting pension and nearly cost-free health 21 insurance benefits, for speculative temporary adjunct work requiring a significant commute that 22 offers no demonstrable long-term stability, comparable benefits, or a meaningful increase in 23 overall compensation. Father also notes that imputation of income should be applied equitably
24 and fairly and that Mother has a history of earning more than what she currently earns. Father
25 further notes that Family Code section 4053 codifies that a parent's first and principal obligation
26 is to support their minor children according to the parent's circumstances and station in life.
27 Father notes that Noah and Elias have already benefitted from his employment with Stuart Hall
28 by way of significant tuition assistance and scholarship access due to his employment with Stuart 29 Hall. Father also states that his pursuit of a doctorate degree has had no material effect on, and is not the cause of the reduction in, his historical income. Father further notes that he has a duty to support all of his minor children, including his third child Evren (DOB: 5/9/2024) with his current spouse. Father also states that his mother is currently paying for his tuition.

- 7) On 7/16/2026, Father filed two Income and Expense Declarations, one showing his income from San Francisco State University, for which he works 17 hours per week and earns $2,600 per month, and the other showing his income from Stuart Hall. Father's Stuart Hall paystubs show that he worked a total of 240.5 hours between 2/18/2026 and 5/12/2026, which averages out to 20 hours per week, and earned $10,240 in year-to-date income as of 5/12/2026, which averages approximately $2,360 per month. Father states that he is 38 years old and has a B.S. as well as a Masters in Kinesiology.

B. Findings and Order

- 1) Family Code section 4065(d) states: "If the parties to a stipulated agreement stipulate to a child support order below the amount established by the statewide uniform guideline, no change of circumstances need be demonstrated to obtain a modification of the child support order to the applicable guideline level or above." The Stipulated Judgment includes a below-guideline child support order of $0. The Court finds that Father does not need to show a change in circumstances to obtain a modification of child support to the applicable guideline level or above.
- 2) Father states that he is currently working 17 hours per week for San Francisco State University and his paystubs from Stuart Hall show that he is working on average 20 hours per week for Stuart Hall, which means that Father is working approximately 37 hours per week, essentially a full-time work schedule. The Court does not find that Mother has met her burden to prove that Father has the ability or opportunity to earn more than he is currently earning. The Court further notes that Father currently earns approximately $4,960 per month, which exceeds the $4,458 monthly income attributed to him in the 2018 guideline calculation attached to the Judgment. Mother, on the other hand, reports earning less than the income attributed to her in that same calculation. If the Court were inclined to impute income to Father, it would likewise need to consider whether income should also be imputed to Mother. However, Father has not established that Mother currently has the ability and opportunity to earn more than she presently earns. Accordingly, Mother's request to impute income to Father is denied.

- 1 3) The Court does not find that Mother has established good cause under Family Code sections 4056 2 and 4057 to rebut the presumptively correct guideline child support amount.
- 3 4) Effective 2/5/2026 (the date Father filed his Request for Order), in accordance with the XSpouse
4 calculation attached hereto and incorporated herein, Mother shall pay Father guideline child
5 support of $562 per month. One-half shall be due and payable by the 1st and one-half shall be due 6 and payable by the 15th of each month.
- 7 5) Child support for July 2026 shall be paid in full no later than Friday, 7/24/2026 at 5:00 PM.
- 8 6) The Court finds that Mother owes Father child support arrears of $462 for the period 2/5/2026 – 9 2/28/2026 and $2,248 for the period 3/1/2026 – 6/30/2026, for total arrears due and owing of 10 $2,710 for the period 2/5/2026 – 6/30/2026. Effective 8/15/2026, Mother shall pay Father an 11 additional $451.67 by the 15th of each month for 6 months to satisfy this arrears balance.
- 12 7) The Court does not find good cause to modify the current order requiring the parties to share the 13 uninsured healthcare expenses of the children equally.
- 14 8) Father's attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.
- 15 9) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within 16 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
17 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
18 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 19 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 20 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 21 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

REQUEST FOR ORDER: CHANGE OF SPOUSAL OR PARTNER SUPPORT, ATTORNEY FEES
AND COSTS, PROPERTY CONTROL, ENFORCEMENT OF STATEMENT OF DECISION; FAMILY
CODE 1101/2122 REMEDIES

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the
Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Todd Georgopapadakos (Husband) and Respondent Tanya Georgopapadakos (Wife) married on 6/9/1996. The parties have one adult daughter. Their son passed away from cancer in 2018 at age 15.
- 2) On 3/26/2025, following a three-afternoon long-cause hearing which occurred on 1/28/2025,
1/30/2025, 2/6/2025, the Honorable Judge Costin issued a Final Statement of Decision regarding Breach of Fiduciary Duty; Division of Property; Permanent Spousal Support; and Husband's Request for Family Code section 271 attorney's fees sanctions. Regarding spousal support, the Judge Costin ordered: "The present order for temporary spousal support ($1,637 per month) shall remain in effect until after the parties' marital status is terminated. After Judgment terminating status is entered, the Court sets long term support at $1,500.00 per month. This amount is, of course, in addition to the asset distributions from the solar businesses set forth above." Judge

1 Costin also awarded to Husband $50,000 in Family Code section 271 attorney's fees sanctions, to 2 be paid by Wife at a rate of $500 per month as a deduction from Wife's monthly spousal support.
3 Judge Costin stated in Paragraph C(1) of the Statement of Decision, "The Court notes it was not 4 tasked at this long cause evidentiary hearing with valuation or division of the entirety of the 5 parties' other assets and debts... The parties still need to reach agreement or schedule an 6 additional trial for the Court to adjudicate any remaining issues."

7 3) On 2/19/2026, the Honorable Judge Mori entered a Judgment which incorporated Judge Costin's
8 Final Statement of Decision, with a reservation of the Court's jurisdiction "over all issues not 9 addressed in the Final Statement of Decision."

10 4) Neither Judge Costin's Statement of Decision, nor the Judgment terminate the parties' marital 11 status.

12 5) Now on for hearing is Wife's Request for Order filed 4/15/2026 asking the Court to:

- 13 a. Set temporary spousal support of $7,181 per month, based on Husband's total income 14 from all sources ("at minimum $25,647/month per his own bank declaration") until the 15 property division is complete
- 16 b. Remove the $5,000/month earning capacity imputation to Wife. Wife states her present 17 circumstances make the imputation untenable, writing, "I was the primary caregiver for 18 our terminally ill son Xander until his death. I am still grieving. In June 2025, I suffered a 19 stroke and am under active neurology care... I am on Medicaid and SNAP. I cannot 20 afford rent in Honolulu or San Francisco."
- 21 c. Address the $500/month FC § 271 sanction offset.
- 22 d. Order Husband to pay Wife's share of all distributions from GIFT, HPVP, DEP, DEP 23 FIT Energy, DEP/APB JV, and all related entities retroactive to March 26, 2025.
- 24 e. Order Husband to file an Income and Expense Declaration with Bank Statements.
- 25 f. Order Husband to file a complete Income and Expense Declaration with all supporting 26 documents within 15 days.
- 27 g. Neutral CPA + Records. Order all K-1s, tax returns, bank statements, and distribution 28 records for 2021–2025 produced to a neutral CPA within 30 days.

- h. Order Husband and all entities he controls to cease new capital investments or reinvestments using community funds without prior court approval.
 - i. Set a hearing on valuation of all community business interests.
 - j. Set aside both FL-144s under FC § 2122 (duress, fraud, perjury, failure to disclose).
 - k. Deny request to protect business partners from civil lawsuits.
 - l. Order Husband to pay fees under FC §§ 2030, 2032, and sanctions under FC § 271.
 - m. Order the in-kind transfer of the Waianae solar farm including all land, buildings, solar equipment, and HECO FIT contracts.
 - n. Calendar for full evidentiary hearing. Award 50% penalty (FC § 1101(g)) or 100% (FC § 1101(h)) on all fraudulently concealed assets.
 - o. Retain jurisdiction until Husband has fully complied with the SOD and every order of this Court.
 - p. Other and further relief as the Court may deem just and proper.
- 6) On 4/17/2026, Wife filed a Memorandum of Points and Authorities.
- 7) On 6/1/2026 and 6/5/2026, Husband filed duplicate Responsive Declarations asking the Court to deny all of Wife's requests. Husband states, "As set forth in Petitioner's Reply Declaration, every issue Respondent raises was adjudicated at the trial before Judge Anne Costin, addressed in the Final Statement of Decision filed March 26, 2025, or resolved by the Judgment (FL-180) that Respondent voluntarily signed on October 20, 2025. Respondent presents no new facts warranting modification or reconsideration." Husband is referring to his Reply Declaration filed on 6/5/2026 for his Request for Order filed 4/10/2026 (which was adjudicated on 6/9/2026). The Court notes there is no Judgment signed by Wife on 10/20/2025 attached to his Reply Declaration filed 6/5/2026 or his Request for Order filed 4/10/2026.
- 8) According to the Proof of Service filed 6/5/2026, Husband's Responsive Declaration was served on Wife "electronically through File & ServeXpress" on 6/1/2026.
- 9) On 6/9/2026 (per the Findings and Order After Hearing filed 6/11/2026), Judge Chan denied Husband's Request for Order filed 4/10/2026 wherein Husband asked the Court to terminate the parties' marital status and confirm all issues had been resolved. Judge Chan found that final orders regarding the entirety of the parties' community estate have not yet been made and denied Husband's requests without prejudice to the Court's ability to adjudicate this request at trial.

10) On 6/9/2026, Husband filed a pleading entitled Notice of Motion and Motion for Reconsideration of Order Dated July 9, 2026, but did not file a Request for Order (FL-300).

11) The prior 6/16/2026 hearing on Wife's 4/15/2026 Request for Order was continued to 7/21/2026 by Visiting Judge Cindee Mayfield on the Court's own motion.

12) On 6/26/2026, Husband filed a Supplemental Declaration clarifying that Wife did not sign a Judgment on 10/20/2025. Rather, "What Respondent signed on October 20, 2025, was the FL-144...In addition to signing the FL-144, Respondent sent an email on October 20, 2025 confirming her agreement to the entire Judgment package."

13) On 7/9/2026, Wife filed a Declaration stating that she suffered a stroke in June 2025 and that the imputation of income to her is no longer tenable. Wife requests the following relief: order an in-kind distribution of a 7.57-acre solar farm (including its FIT contracts and equipment) as her share of the community property and, if the Court declines to order the transfer, appoint a receiver, award $7,181 per month in spousal support, and order the receiver to distribute all withheld community distributions, including allegedly undisclosed assets. Wife argues, Husband has failed to comply with the Statement of Decision by omitting a valuable company (Distributed Energy Partners LLC), filing a Final Declaration of Disclosure stating all issues were resolved despite her objection, and refusing to transfer property as ordered. Wife states Husband has presented inconsistent valuations of the community business interests to different audiences, making his valuations unreliable and demonstrating that the only effective remedy is a court-ordered in-kind transfer of property.

14) On 7/17/2026, Husband filed a Declaration stating Wife's declaration is an untimely opposition under Code of Civil Procedure section 1005(b). Husband also states that every issue Wife raises has already been adjudicated. Husband writes, "Petitioner contends that he has fully complied with the Judgment and Statement of Decision with respect to the three remaining community assets—DEP, Hawaii PV Partners, and Green Island FIT. He states that each asset is subject to an executed buyout agreement establishing a payment schedule, copies of which have been provided to both Respondent and the Court, and that all required payments have been made on time, in

1 most instances well within the 30-day period prescribed by the Judgment. Petitioner argues that
2 neither the Judgment nor the Statement of Decision requires any transfer of ownership interests
3 beyond the agreed-upon buyout payments, that the DEP loan is being repaid according to 4 schedule, and that there are no undisclosed assets. Petitioner further argues that Respondent's
5 claim he is in breach of the Statement of Decision by failing to transfer ownership interests
6 fundamentally mischaracterizes the Court's ruling, which provided that Respondent would receive
7 her share through buyout payments rather than direct ownership. Petitioner also disputes
8 Respondent's assertion that she was induced into signing the FL-144 and judgment package
9 through false promises, arguing that Respondent voluntarily signed the documents after asking
10 questions about the assets, discussing the matter with both Petitioner and the parties' daughter, 11 and receiving answers to her questions. Petitioner maintains that no promises or conditions were 12 made beyond the terms contained in the signed documents and that Respondent has presented no 13 evidence, other than her own assertions, to support her claim that her agreement was induced by 14 any promise or misrepresentation.”

15 B. Findings and Order

- 16 1) Although Husband did not properly file a motion for reconsideration as Husband did not file a
17 Request for Order (FL-300) to bring his request, as required by California Rules of Court
18 5.92(A)(1)(B), the Court will nevertheless adjudicate Husband’s motion to reconsider Judge
19 Chan’s June 9, 2026 order. Husband’s motion for reconsideration is denied. The Court does not 20 find that Husband identified new or different facts, circumstances, or law to warrant a 21 reconsideration of Judge Chan’s June 9, 2026 order.
 - 22 2) The Court’s jurisdiction to adjudicate Wife’s Request for Order filed 4/15/2026 is reserved for 23 trial.
 - 24 3) The parties are ordered to file and serve an At Issue Memorandum to request a Status Conference
25 Date, at which time the parties will be given a future Mandatory Settlement Conference (MSC)
26 date. If the parties do not settle their remaining disputes at the MSC, the parties will be given a 27 future trial date.
 - 28 4) The Court will prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

TENTATIVE RULING

The parties are ordered to appear in-person or via Zoom video at 9AM on 7/21/2026 in Department 404. If a party chooses to appear by Zoom, that party must abide by the Notice and Instructions for Remote Appearance in San Francisco Family Court set forth above.

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Patricia Weir (Mother) and Respondent Carl Warren Craddock (Father) have one minor child, Elyse (DOB 7/23/2018, age 7).
- 2) On 6/30/2025, Father filed a request seeking joint legal and physical custody and increased parenting time.
- 3) On 7/29/2025, Mother filed a response requesting (1) co-parent counseling with Dr. Lyn Greenberg and (2) for Dr. Greenberg to access both parents' mental health providers and provide a report to the Court before any modifications to the parenting time are made.
- 4) After hearing on 10/16/2025, the Court, among other things, ordered parenting time for Father from pick-up on Thursday after school (or 2:30PM if no school) until Saturday at 8PM, with a check-in phone or video call for Mother and Elyse on Friday after school or evening. The Court

1 also set a holiday schedule, ordered the parties to work with Dr. Greenberg, denied Mother's 2 request for Dr. Greenberg to have access to either party's individual therapist, ordered therapy for 3 Elyse, and ordered the parties to be sober during their custodial times.

4 5) At a 4/6/2026 review hearing, the Court ordered, pending the parties' selection of a coparent
5 counselor, that Father's parenting time shall be on a two-week rotating schedule as follows: Week
6 1: Pick-up on Wednesday after school (or 2:30PM if no school) until Friday drop-off at school (or 7 9AM if not school); Week 2: Pick-up on Friday after school (or 2:30PM if no school) until 8 Monday morning drop-off at school (or 9AM if no school). The Court granted Mother's request
9 for vacation time with Elyse to travel to Disneyland from 7/8/2026 to 7/13/2026. The Court set a 10 review hearing for 7/21/2026.

11 6) On 7/10/2026, Father filed a declaration asking for 50/50 custody on a 2-2-5-5 schedule. He 12 states his time with Elyse has benefited her well-being, evidenced through his observation and 13 Elyse's therapist's remark that she is "stable and doing well." Father states the 60/40 timeshare is 14 proving untenable; for instance, Father states Elyse has been late to school 96 times during the 15 2025–2026 school year, and nearly all those days have fallen on Mother's custodial time. Father
16 also states Mother failed to attend 2 of the 6 scheduled coparent counseling sessions, that the calls
17 with Mother during his custodial time are unworkable, and that the parties have been unable to 18 agree to a vacation schedule. Father requests that both parties share equal vacation and holiday
19 time: specifically, that all holidays alternate annually, that Winter Break is split in two with one 20 parent having the first week and the other having the second week.

21 7) On 7/10/2026, Mother filed a declaration stating the parties have been participating in 22 coparenting counseling with Barbara Seifer since 5/11/2026, and the sessions are 23 counterproductive as Father has not allowed any therapeutic coordination between Ms. Seifer and 24 the parties' individual therapists. Mother states Father continues to put Elyse in the middle of 25 parental conflict that he creates. Mother also states she is concerned that Father has not worked 26 on the underlying causes of his verbal and physical aggression, depression or suicidality and 27 challenges with emotional regulation. Mother states she is willing to accept the 2-2-5-5-28 timeshare Father requests because continued litigation under these circumstances would only
29 cause more harm to Elyse. Mother states she would like to have Wednesday and Thursday nights

1 and for Father to have Monday and Tuesday nights. Mother additionally requests: that the Court
2 order each parent to allow Elyse to call or text the other when she asks to do so; maintain the 3 10/16/2025 and 4/16/2026 orders except for the schedule, coparenting counseling, and calls with 4 the child; and that the Court adopt her proposed holiday schedule, under item 18 of the 5 Declaration.

6 B. Findings and Orders

- 7 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child
8 Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in
9 violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor
10 child is the United States.

REQUEST FOR ORDER RE: BIFURCATION ORDER

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Sepideh Banava (Wife) and Respondent Farhad Kermani (Husband) married on 6/21/1991. Wife contends the parties separated on 6/10/2025, for a marriage of 33 years and 11 months. Husband has not filed a Response to the Petition and therefore Husband's position regarding the date of separation is unknown. The parties have no minor children. Wife is represented by attorney Hossein Berenji.
- 2) At the prior 2/3/2026 hearing, the Court granted Claimant Masoud Jafari (Husband's brother)'s unopposed request to be joined as a party to the proceeding. Claimant Jafari asserts that Husband and Wife hold a ½ tenant in common interest in 2420 Moraga St. San Francisco, CA 94122 and that Claimant holds the remaining ½ tenant in common interest in the property. Claimant is represented by attorney Elijah Underwood.
- 3) Now on for hearing is Claimant Jafari's Request for Order filed 3/24/2026. Claimant Jafari states, "On or about May 11, 2026, Petitioner and Respondent acquired the Property via Grant Deed, as husband and wife, and as tenants-in-common with Claimant. To date, Claimant has been unable

1 to reach an agreement with Petitioner or Respondent to sell the Property. As such, on December
2 8, 2026, Claimant served a Notice of Ouster on Petitioner, after Petitioner denied Claimant's
3 request for concurrent possession. Now, Claimant seeks an order to bifurcate the Property related 4 proceedings to pursue a sale, without delay, or incurring the unnecessary expense of duplicative
5 litigation... Absent an order for bifurcation, Claimant will be forced to file a separate suit for 6 partition, as the Parties have been unable to reach an agreement to sell the Property. ” The Court
7 notes that the May 2026 date cited by Claimant Jafari regarding the acquisition of the Moraga St.
8 property is likely a typographical error as Petitioner states in her declaration filed 7/8/2026 that 9 the property was acquired in May 2016.

- 10 4) Per the Proofs of Service filed 3/27/2026, Claimant Jafari’s Request for Order was mailed to 11 Wife’s attorney as well as to an address for Husband in Columbus, Ohio on 3/27/2026.
- 12 5) On 5/6/2026, Wife filed a Responsive Declaration stating, “There is no basis for Claimant to 13 request that the property located at 2420 Moraga St., San Francisco, CA be sold prior to trial.
14 California law strongly disfavors dividing property and ordering its sale or other disposition prior 15 to trial absent a finding that the property is in imminent danger of loss: See generally Family
16 Code 2108 (Court authorized to order pretrial sale of property only to avoid risk of imminent
17 loss); Lee v. Superior Court (Lee) (1976) 63 Cal. App. 3d 705, 710, 711 (Trial Court erred in 18 ordering pretrial sale of property and disbursement of proceeds when there was no risk of loss and 19 inadequate security.) Claimant has identified absolutely no facts warranting the pretrial sale of 20 this property, such as the property being at risk of foreclosure. That is because the property is not 21 at risk of foreclosure and is not distressed; the Claimant merely wanting to sell now is not a basis
22 for the pretrial sale of the Moraga St. Residence.”
- 23 6) On 7/8/2026, Wife filed a second Responsive Declaration reiterating the request to deny 24 Claimant’s request to bifurcate the issue of the Moraga St. residence. Wife states Husband and 25 Claimant (his brother) are acting in concert. Wife states, “Neither Claimant nor Respondent has 26 done their Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure in this matter. It is black-letter law under Family
27 Code 2108 that ‘in no event shall the court grant the application unless, as provided in this 28 chapter, the appropriate declaration of disclosure has been served by the moving party’...
29 Claimant, for his part, has asserted that he has the right to participate in this case on Respondent’s

1 behalf claiming authority under a Power of Attorney. Respondent is refusing to engage in this 2 case and is hiding behind his brother, relying on this Power of Attorney. Respondent is 3 attempting to use his brother's joinder and this Power of Attorney to bypass the requirements that 4 he do his own Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure so that he can start disposing of marital 5 assets and liquidating one of the single most valuable items in the marital estate without 6 disclosing what he contends are the parties' assets and holdings. The Court should not permit
7 itself to be used in such a fashion... Claimant has never lived on the Moraga St. property since it
8 was purchased, and had never previously expressed an interest in living there. He owns his own
9 home in Brea, CA, more than 420 miles away. This sudden desire to move in with Petitioner, 10 coinciding with Petitioner filing a marital dissolution action against Claimant's brother, is almost 11 certainly a pressure tactic, which Petitioner resisted; in turn, Claimant now claims that he was 12 'ousted' from the property. There was no such ouster, and the Court should not ratify this sort of 13 pressure tactic and power play with an order for sale... The Property is not at risk of foreclosure.
14 I have continued to make the required mortgage, tax, and insurance payments and am not in 15 default or behind on those payments. There is no financial distress warranting a pre-trial sale.
16 Respondent has not complied with the requirement of doing his disclosures and so the Court
17 should not even consider a pre-trial sale of assets, nor has Claimant. Claimant's request to 18 bifurcate the Property from the rest of the case and order its sale should be denied."

- 19 7) Per the Proofs of Service filed 5/6/2026, Wife's Responsive Declaration was emailed to Claimant
20 Jafari's attorney as well as emailed to two email addresses for Husband on 5/6/2026.
- 21 8) Per the Proofs of Service filed 7/8/2026, Wife's Responsive Declaration was emailed to Claimant
22 Jafari's attorney as well as emailed to two email addresses for Husband, and mailed to an address
23 for Husband in Columbus, OH, on 7/8/2026.
- 24 9) Husband did not file a Responsive Declaration, nor has Husband filed any pleadings in this matter 25 to date.
- 26 10) Claimant Jafari did not file a Reply Declaration.
- 27 11) The Court notes that although Wife states Claimant Jafari has power of attorney over Husband, 28 the Court has not seen any documentary evidence to support that assertion.
- 29

1 B. Findings and Order

2 1) California Rules of Court, rule 5.390(b) states: “The court may separately try one or more issues
3 before trial of the other issues if resolution of the bifurcated issue is likely to simplify the 4 determination of the other issues.”

5 2) The Court does not find that Claimant Jafari has demonstrated good cause under California Rules
6 of Court, rule 5.390 to bifurcate the Moraga St. property for separate trial. Claimant Jafari’s 7 request is denied without prejudice.

8 3) Claimant Jafari’s attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

9 4) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within
10 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
11 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
12 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 13 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 14 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 15 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

) Hearing Date: July 21, 2026

) Hearing Time: 9:00 AM

) Presiding: AI MORI

REQUEST FOR ORDER: SPOUSAL OR PARTNER SUPPORT, ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS, VOCATIONAL TRAINING COSTS

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the
Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Chee Thao-Yang (Mother) and Respondent Ly Yang (Father) married on 12/19/2008 and separated on 12/21/2025, for a marriage of 17 years. The parties have two minor children, Martin (DOB: 9/9/2012, age 13) and Ailee (DOB: 1/19/2017, age 9). Mother is represented by attorney Kasey Dunton. Father is currently self-represented.
- 2) On 2/11/2026, in related Case No. FDV-26-818908, Judge Luna denied Mother's Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order against Father and ordered the parties to share joint legal and joint physical custody of their children. Judge Luna ordered Father to have 7 days of visitation with the children in California with 21 days' notice to Mother.
- 3) Now on for hearing is Father's Request for Order filed 5/18/2026 seeking: temporary guideline spousal support, $50,000 in attorney's fees and costs, an advance of community property RSUs in the amount of $70,000 to fund Father's vocational evaluation as a commercial pilot, and a stay on any seek-work order or imputation order until he can complete that training. Father states that he

1 vacated the parties' shared apartment because Mother told him he had to either pay the rent or 2 vacate the apartment. Father states he was unable to pay the rent and so vacated the apartment
3 even though he had nowhere else to go. Father states that Mother subsequently cut him off
4 financially. Father states that he lived at his workplace and then in his car, and then relocated to 5 Minnesota where family members are currently housing him and helping him pay for food. Father
6 states that prior to his relocation, he had been employed part-time (30 – 35 hours per week,
7 earning $22 per hour) for United Airlines working ground crew since December 2023. Father
8 states he worked part-time so he could be available for the parties' children because Mother's job
9 is time intensive. Father states that he has been diligently applying for work in Minnesota and has 10 been offered a position with Unifi Aviation LLC and will earn $18.16 per hour but Father is 11 unsure of how many hours he will receive. Father states that he would like to enroll full-time in 12 an accelerated professional pilot program, but he would not be able to do that program full time
13 and also working. Father states that Mother is an accounts manager for Amazon with a significant 14 base income, bonuses, and RSUs and the parties' joint tax return filed in 2024 reflects her making 15 $300,000 that year.

- 16 4) On 5/18/2026, Father's prior attorney Andrew Graham filed a declaration wherein he states
17 Father has paid $17,525 in fees to date for work getting up to speed, drafting the instant motion, 18 reviewing pleadings filed by Mother, and conferring with Father. Father's attorney states, "The 19 litigation is not overtly complex but there are anticipated to be issues surrounding custody and 20 visitation, child and spousal support, and division of property. There are currently already two 21 motions pending and this follows an unsuccessful request for a DVRO from Petitioner. I therefore 22 reasonably expect some of these matters to require litigation in which case the $50,000 requested
23 is likely to be only a portion of the total fees requested. Given the large disparity in access to 24 funds, Petitioner bearing this portion is reasonable."
- 25 5) On 5/28/2026, a Substitution of Attorney was filed wherein Father's former attorney Andrew 26 Graham substituted out as Father's attorney of record. Father is now self-represented.
- 27 6) On 7/9/2026, Mother filed a Responsive Declaration. Mother asks the Court to order guideline
28 spousal and child support and impute income to Father, order Father to seek work, issue a Gavron
29 warning against Father, and deny Father's other requests for order. Mother states Father

1 voluntarily quit his job and relocated to Minnesota. Mother states that Father's request to fund
2 flight school is out of touch with reality. Mother states Father's request to fund flight school is 3 unrealistic because he has contemplated becoming a pilot for years, the program would require 4 additional years of flight training before he could become employable as a commercial pilot, and 5 the community RSUs are worth approximately $50,000 rather than the $70,000 Father seeks.
6 Regarding Father's request for attorney's fees, Mother states she does not have superior access to 7 assets from which to pay attorney's fees. She has paid her fees using a personal loan and there is 8 no premarital separate property. Mother also states that since the parties separated, she has had to 9 pay all of the children's expense as well as community debts.

10 7) On 7/9/2026, Wife filed an Income and Expense Declaration. Wife states that she works 40 hours
11 per week as a Technical Account Manager for Amazon and earns $15,492 per month.

12 8) On 7/14/2026, Husband filed a Reply Declaration. Husband argues he did not voluntarily reduce 13 his income but was forced to relocate due to Wife's alleged threats of legal action. Husband states 14 he has obtained employment and developed what Husband states is a cost-effective plan to 15 become a commercial pilot. Husband also accuses Wife of misconduct, including violating the 16 Standard Family Law Restraining Orders, which Husband states warrants an award of attorney's 17 fees and Family Code section 271 sanctions.

18 9) On 7/14/2026, Husband filed an Income and Expense Declaration. Husband states he began a 19 position as a ramp agent in Minnesota on 6/11/2026. Husband states he earns $18.16 per hour and 20 works 32 hours per week.

21 B. Findings and Order

22 1) Mother's request to impute income to Father what he was previously earning ($2,860 per month)
23 is hereby granted.

24 2) The Court finds good cause to issue a support order effective 8/1/2026 as the Court finds Mother 25 was paying rent for two apartments (both the marital apartment and her new apartment) between 26 February 2026 and July 2026 and did not have the ability to pay for support during that period.

27 3) Effective 8/1/2026, in accordance with the XSpouse calculation attached hereto and incorporated
28 herein, Mother shall pay Father temporary guideline spousal support of $2,137 per month and 29 Father shall pay Mother guideline child support of $741 per month, for a net payment from

1 Mother to Father of $1,396 per month. One-half shall be due and payable by the 1st and one-half 2 shall be due and payable by the 15th of each month.

- 3 4) The Court notes that the attached XSpouse calculation is based on a 100% timeshare for Mother,
4 which both parties listed is the current timeshare in their Income and Expense Declarations.
- 5 5) Father's request for an advance of community property RSUs to fund Father's vocational 6 evaluation as a commercial pilot is denied.
- 7 6) Because Father is currently working, Father's request for a stay on any seek-work order or 8 imputation order until he can complete that training is denied.
- 9 7) Father's request for need-based attorney's fees and costs is denied without prejudice to a new 10 Request for Order. Father's attorney has substituted out of the case and it is unclear from Father's 11 Reply Declaration whether he is still making that request. Moreover, Father's attorney's 12 declaration filed 5/18/2026 did not provide sufficient detail for the Court to make a determination
13 regarding whether the fees requested are just, reasonable, and necessary. If Father files a new 14 Request for Order seeking need-based attorney's fees, Father must explain in detail what tasks his 15 attorneys have performed to date as well as what tasks are left to be completed to bring this case 16 to completion.
- 17 8) Mother's unopposed request for a Gavron warning against Father is granted. The Court advises
18 Father, pursuant to Family Code section 4330(b), that he is expected to make reasonable good-
19 faith efforts to become self-supporting within a reasonable period of time. Failure to make 20 reasonable efforts toward becoming self-supporting may constitute a change of circumstances 21 warranting modification or termination of spousal support.
- 22 9) Mother's attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.
- 23 10) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within 24 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
25 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
26 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 27 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 28 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in
29 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

REQUEST FOR ORDER: ATTORNEY FEES AND COSTS

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) Petitioner Stellio Nederovique and Respondent Jelena Smith are not married and they dated for 6 months. The parties do not have minor children in common. Petitioner is represented by attorney Yosef Peretz. Respondent is self-represented.
- 2) On 7/23/2025, Petitioner filed a Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order against Respondent.
- 3) Several hearing dates were held between 8/15/2025 and 12/5/2025 during which Petitioner stated he was having trouble getting Respondent served. On 10/31/2025, Judge Gold made a finding that Respondent is evading service and required Petitioner to serve Respondent by email and text message.
- 4) According to the Proof of Service filed 11/10/2025, Petitioner's moving papers were served by email and text message.

- 1 5) On 12/5/2025, following a hearing at which Respondent did not appear, the Court issued a 2-year
2 Restraining Order After Hearing protecting Petitioner from Respondent.
- 3 6) On 5/5/2026, the Court granted an ex parte request by Petitioner that he be permitted to have 4 Respondent served with the restraining order by alternate means. The Court ordered that service
5 of the restraining order be accomplished by email and text “and to known social media account(s) 6 via messenger or comparable method of communication.”
- 7 7) Now on for hearing is Petitioner’s Request for Order filed 3/18/2026 asking the Court to award 8 him $65,645 in attorney’s fees and $7,342.10 in costs, for a total request of $72,987.10, under 9 Family Code section 6344.
- 10 8) At the prior 5/12/2026 hearing, Respondent appeared in pro per and stated she had not received 11 sufficient notice of the prior proceedings. The Court adopted its Tentative Ruling without 12 objection and ordered the following:
 - 13 a. The hearing on Petitioner’s Request for Order filed 3/18/2026 is continued to Tuesday, 14 7/21/2026 at 9:00 AM in Dept. 404.
 - 15 b. At least 20 calendar days prior to the next hearing date, Petitioner shall file and serve a 16 declaration explaining why he believes (pursuant to Family Code section 6344(c)) that 17 Respondent has or is reasonably likely to have the ability to pay the fees and costs
18 requested. Petitioner shall include in his declaration statements addressing whether he 19 believes Respondent has any assets or debts; whether Respondent was employed or self-20 employed during their dating relationship (and what profession); how much he believes 21 Respondent was earning at the time; and how Respondent covered her expenses during 22 their dating relationship. Petitioner shall also state whether he believes Respondent is 23 currently employed or self-employed (and what profession).
 - 24 c. Petitioner’s request for an alternative service method is hereby granted. Petitioner shall 25 serve the following documents on Respondent by email:
 - 26 i. His Request for Order and all related pleadings (including the declaration the 27 Court is requiring the Petitioner to file regarding Respondent’s ability to pay)
 - 28 ii. Copy of the Tentative Ruling Instructions
 - 29 iii. Blank Responsive Declaration

- iv. Findings and Order After Hearing for the 5/12/2026 hearing date.
- v. Petitioner's attorney shall also send a text message to Respondent and send direct message(s) to Respondent's known social media account(s) informing her of the next hearing date, informing her that Court documents were emailed to her which include a motion for attorney's fees, and informing her of the amount in attorney's fees that Petitioner is requesting.
- vi. In advance of the next hearing date, Petitioner shall file a Proof of Service evidencing compliance with the order set forth above (and Petitioner's attorney shall attach to the Proof of Service screenshots of the text and other direct messages to Respondent).
- vii. Petitioner's attorney was also ordered to prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

9) On 6/30/2026, Petitioner filed a Declaration. Petitioner states that when he first met Respondent, Respondent was employed part-time at Nordstrom Rack from July through September 2024. Petitioner states that after leaving Nordstrom Rack "and throughout the remainder of our relationship, [Respondent] was not employed in a traditional full time job." Instead, Petitioner states Respondent had and continues to have an extensive social media presence (48,000 followers on TikTok and 1.9 million likes and 9,000 followers on Instagram) and she "represents herself as an influencer, content creator, actress, and entertainment industry professional." Petitioner states that on 1/1/2026, Respondent posted that she was getting paid to be in a bikini for "s3 of euphoria" and the post includes an image of "what appears to be a paycheck or other type of payroll document from the HBO studio." The attached image appears to be only a small excerpt of a document bearing Respondent's name, the words "Studio: HBO," and the phrase "Check Details." The excerpt does not show the amount of any payment. On 1/24/2026, Petitioner states Respondent published a social media post stating that she had "shot my 2nd HBO show." Petitioner states the post includes photographs depicting a building identified as "Stage 17," together with production tents and golf carts commonly associated with film and television productions. Petitioner states, based on Respondent's own representations and the contents of the post, he believes Respondent has worked on multiple HBO productions and has received compensation for work in the entertainment industry. Petitioner also attached what he states are screenshots of images from Respondent's social media accounts which Petitioner states show that Respondent collaborates with certain brands (e.g., Frankies Bikinis, I Am Gia, Tiger Mist, Miss Mee, Windsor Store, and Edikted). Petitioner further provided what he states are images from Respondent's social media accounts which suggest she attended Coachella and traveled to Joshua Tree.

10) On 6/30/2026, Petitioner filed a Supplemental Brief stating that Respondent has failed to appear at every stage of these proceedings and has repeatedly evaded service. Petitioner argues that by refusing to participate in this action, Respondent has prevented Petitioner from obtaining discovery or any financial information directly from her. Petitioner argues that he should not be prejudiced by Respondent's failure to participate in these proceedings or by her refusal to provide financial information that only she possesses.

11) On July 8, 2026, Petitioner filed a Proof of Service stating that his Request for Order, supporting papers, Petitioner's recently filed declarations, and "Tentative Ruling" were served on Respondent by email and text message.

12) Respondent has filed no pleadings in this matter to date.

B. Findings and Order

1) The Court notes there is no Findings and Order After Hearing (FOAH) on file for the prior 5/12/2026 hearing date because Petitioner's attorney did not prepare and submit the FOAH to the Court, as the Court previously ordered him to do. This means that Respondent has not been served with a copy of the FOAH for the prior 5/12/2026 hearing date and the Court is unable to find that Respondent has had sufficient notice of the 7/21/2026 hearing date. The Court also notes that the Proof of Service filed by Petitioner on 7/8/2026 does not mention whether a copy of the Tentative Ruling Instructions and a blank Responsive Declaration were served on Respondent, as previously ordered and which are required to be served per San Francisco Local Rule 11.7(D)(3)(a) and California Rules of Court, rule 5.92(a)(1)(C).

2) The Court finds good cause to continue the hearing on Petitioner's Request for Order filed 3/18/2026 to Thursday, 10/8/2026 at 9:00 AM in Dept. 404.

1 3) At least 30 calendar days prior to the next hearing date, Petitioner's attorney shall have the
2 following documents sent to Respondent by email and text message and file a Proof of Service 3 evidencing service of:

- 4 a. Findings and Order After Hearing for the 5/12/2026 hearing date (Petitioner's attorney to 5 prepare and submit to the Court);
6 b. Findings and Order After Hearing for the 7/21/2026 hearing date (Petitioner's attorney to 7 prepare and submit to the Court);
8 c. San Francisco Tentative Ruling Instructions;
9 d. Blank Responsive Declaration (FL-320); and 10 e. Blank Income and Expense Declaration (FL-150).

11 4) If Respondent wishes to oppose Petitioner's request for attorney's fees, Respondent shall file and 12 serve a Responsive Declaration (FL-320) and a completed Income and Expense Declaration (FL-13 150) at least 10 calendar days before the next hearing date.

14 5) Petitioner's attorney shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing for the 7/21/2026
15 hearing date.

16 6) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within
17 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
18 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
19 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 20 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 21 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 22 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).
