REQUEST FOR ORDER: CHILD CUSTODY, VISITATION (PARENTING TIME)

TENTATIVE RULING

The parties are ordered to appear. The parties may appear in person in Dept. 403 or remotely by Zoom video. If a party chooses to appear by video, that party must abide by the Notice and Instructions for Remote Appearances in San Francisco Family Court set forth above.

A. Procedural History

1) The parties are Petitioner Anita Richardson (Mother) and Respondent Jessye Powell (Father).

They share one minor child: Noah Powell (DOB: 07/08/15).

2) On March 19, 2026, Father filed a Request for Order seeking modification of the existing child custody and visitation orders. Father seeks sole legal and sole physical custody. It is unclear to the Court what orders Father is requesting regarding parenting time for Mother. Father also seeks termination of the existing child support order, alleging the child resides with him full time.

3) On April 20, 2026, the Court referred the parties to Family Court Services (FCS) Mediation on June 2, 2026, and set the matter for return hearing on June 11, 2026.

4) On 04/11/26, Mother filed a Responsive Declaration in opposition to Father's Request for Order. Mother asks the Court to deny Father's requested relief. Mother indicates that the child is not with Father and is actually with paternal grandmother. Mother also alleges she has stable housing, and the child is able to continue to have parenting time with her. It appears that Mother

1 is asking the Court to order Father to have parenting time every other weekend from Friday after
2 school to Monday morning drop off at school.

3 B. Findings and Order

4 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child
5 Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in
6 violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor
7 child(ren) is the United States.

8 2) The parties are ordered to appear.

REQUEST FOR ORDER OF CHILD CUSTODY, VISITATION (PARENTING TIME)

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties subject to this proceeding are Petitioner Catherine Rachford (Mother) and Respondent Nicolai Grossman (Father). They share one minor child: Clara Bea Rachford Grossman, age 13 (DOB: 10/19/12).
- 2) On December 12, 2025, Mother filed a Request for Order seeking modification of the existing child custody and visitation orders and orders related to travel with the minor child. Mother requests sole legal custody and to maintain joint physical custody. As to parenting time, Mother requests what appear to be orders permitting visitation with Father at the minor child's discretion. Lastly, Mother seeks orders permitting travel with the minor child without Father's consent.
- 3) On February 2, 2026, the matter was heard on the Court's Readiness calendar. The Court referred the parties to Family Court Services (FCS) Mediation on February 18, 2026 and set the matter for return hearing on April 14, 2026.
- 4) On March 23, 2026, a Tier II Report was completed. The Court has read and considered this report.

- 1 5) On April 6, 2026, Mother filed a “Reply/Update” in preparation for the Court’s originally
2 scheduled April 14, 2026 hearing date, which has been read and considered by the Court.
- 3 6) At the April 14, 2026 hearing, Father was not present, but was represented by counsel. The Court
4 issued the following orders:
- 5 a. The Court finds good cause to continue the matter to June 11, 2026.
 - 6 b. Mother shall have temporary final decision-making authority on all matters related to the 7 minor’s healthcare.
 - 8 c. Either parent may travel with the minor child anywhere within the United States during 9 said parent’s own custodial time, with notice to – but without consent from – the other
10 parent. For out-of-state travel, notice shall be given at least 21 days in advance of the 11 departure date.
- 12 7) On June 4, 2026, Father filed a Responsive Declaration wherein he asks the Court to “uphold its 13 previous orders and the parties’ previous agreements, and order participation in co-parenting
14 counseling to prevent further litigation.”
- 15 8) On June 5, 2026, Mother filed a Reply Declaration, which has been read and considered by the 16 Court.

17 B. Findings and Order

- 18 1) This Court has jurisdiction to make child custody orders in this case under the Uniform Child
19 Custody Jurisdiction and Enforcement Act. A violation of this order may subject the party in
20 violation to civil or criminal penalties, or both. The country of habitual residence of the minor
21 child(ren) is the United States.
- 22 2) Mother’s request to modify the existing child custody orders is DENIED.
- 23 3) Mother’s request to modify the existing parenting plan is DENIED. Mother shall ensure that the 24 minor child is presented to Father for him to exercise his court-ordered parenting time. The 25 minor child does not get to decide if and when she has parenting time with Father. That is not a
26 child function, and the Court expects both parents to follow the existing parenting time schedule.
- 27 4) Both parents are ordered to sign up for and participate in co-parenting counseling. The parents
28 are ordered to participate jointly. The costs will be shared equally, and the number of sessions
29

1 shall be at the discretion of the selected therapist. The following protocol shall be used to select
2 the co-parenting counselor:

- 3 a. Father will submit the names of three professionals to Mother within 7 days of June 11, 4 2026. Father may email mother the names of the selected professionals.
 - 5 b. Mother shall select one professional from the list of names submitted by Father. Mother
6 shall make her selection (and email Father) within 7 days of receipt of the list of names
7 from Father.
 - 8 c. Upon selection by Mother, both parties shall contact the provider (within 48 hours) and 9 set up their first appointment with him/her.
 - 10 d. Both parties shall equally pay the costs for such counseling.
 - 11 e. The co-parent counseling shall terminate, upon the recommendation of the selected 12 therapist.
- 13 5) All prior orders, not in conflict with the orders made herein, shall remain in full force and effect.

REQUEST FOR ORDER RE: RECONSIDERATION PURSUANT TO CCP 1008 (A) (B)

TENTATIVE RULING

The parties are ordered to appear. The parties may appear in person in Dept. 403 or remotely by Zoom video. If a party chooses to appear by video, that party must abide by the Notice and Instructions for Remote Appearances in San Francisco Family Court set forth above.

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties are Petitioner Pamela Ruth Apple and Respondent Michael Eugene Lipson.
- 2) On 4/10/26, the Court issued an order: (a) declining to stay the 7/17/25 order appointing a discovery referee; (b) appointing Kate Merrill as discovery referee; (c) permitting Respondent to make a one-time withdrawal of $50,000 from the CUSCO account to pay discovery referee, Kate Merrill; (d) denying Petitioner's request for attorney's fees under Family Code section 2030; and (e) denying Petitioner's request for advancement of funds. See Findings and Order After Hearing (FOAH) on 3/26/26 (file dated 4/10/26). The Court notes this matter was taken under submission after the 3/26/26 hearing.
- 3) On 4/23/26, Respondent filed an ex parte motion for reconsideration of the Court's order file dated 4/10/26 pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 1008, subsections (a) and (b). Respondent requests the Court modify the order as follows:

- a. Permit $20,000 (instead of $50,000) withdrawn by Respondent and paid to discovery referee, Kate Merrill; or
 - b. Vacate the Court's appointment of discovery referee, Kate Merrill.
- 4) On 4/23/26, the Court denied Respondent's request for emergency relief and set the matter for regular hearing on 6/11/26.
 - 5) On 5/29/26, Petitioner filed a Responsive Declaration in opposition to Respondent's motion for reconsideration wherein it appears Petitioner renews her request for Family Code section 2030 attorney's fees, which was denied in the Court's 4/10/26 order. Petitioner states Kate Merrill may no longer be available to serve as discovery referee and requests that $20,000 be advanced to the first available of Kate Merrill or Scott Slomiak (who is an alternative discovery referee). Petitioner requests the Court vacate the 6/26/26 Status Conference and advance Petitioner $20,000 from the CUSCO account.
 - 6) On 6/2/26, Respondent filed a Reply Declaration. Respondent states that there is no evidence that Kate Merrill requested $50,000, and that the first time he heard the figure was from Petitioner's counsel during the 3/26/26 hearing. Respondent states that the actual amount owed was $20,000, which Petitioner did not dispute in her Responsive Declaration. Attached as Exhibit B is a transcript from the 3/26/26 hearing.
 - 7) On 6/2/26, Respondent filed written objections to Petitioner's Responsive Declaration seeking to strike the declaration in its entirety for relevance, lack of foundation, improper argument, and violation of Family Code section 213.
 - 8) On 6/2/26, Respondent filed a Notice of Lodging in Support of Respondent's Reply Declaration.

B. Findings and Order

- 1) The parties are ordered to appear.

REQUEST FOR ORDER RE SEEK WORK AND VOCATIONAL EVALUATION

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

1) The parties are Petitioner Stefan E. Adler (Father) and Respondent Jennifer Rosedail (Mother).

They share two minor children (twins): Hugo Adler (DOB: 7/4/13) and Mose Adler (DOB: 7/4/13).

2) On 4/17/26, Mother filed a Request for Order asking the Court to order Father comply with a Seek Work Order and undergo a vocational evaluation at Mother's expense. Mother asserts that Father has 22 years of work experience as senior paralegal at "at well-established 'white shoe' law firms and a big five consulting firm" and landlord managing and repairing the parties' rental properties. Mother states Father left his former employer between 2009 and 2010 without an agreement from Mother to support him indefinitely. Mother believes it is in the children's best interest to earn an income to support them. Mother attached a proposed Seek Work Order to her Request for Order.

3) On 5/29/26, Father filed a Responsive Declaration to Mother's Request for Order. It is Father's position that since 2010 he has not received a salary because he was the primary parent and acting

1 as the property manager for the parties' numerous rental properties. Father states he previously
2 agreed to submitting to a vocational evaluation and does not believe Mother's motion is necessary
3 as he already met with a vocational evaluator – Ms. Trustin – and is actively engaged in working
4 with her. It is Father's position that the Seek Work Order is premature without the vocational
5 evaluation being completed. Father asks the Court to continue the matter after the 7/24/26
6 Mandatory Settlement Conference.

- 7 4) On 6/4/26, Mother filed a Reply Declaration reiterating Father's duty to support his children.
8 Mother asserts that Father does not provide any care to the parties' adult child, Elvis, who is
9 permanently disabled and requires a high level of care. Mother disputes that Father is the primary
10 parent of the twins.

11 B. Findings and Order

- 12 1) Family Code section 3900 proscribes the duty of both parents to support their minor children.
13 Further, Family Code section 4053 sets forth the principle that this duty is a parent's "first and 14 principal obligation."
15 2) As such, the Court finds good cause to adopt Mother's proposed Seek Work Order, which is 16 attached hereto and incorporate herein, effective 7/1/26.
17 3) Counsel for Mother shall prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing, which shall include as an 18 attachment Mother's proposed Seek Work Order.
19 4) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within 20 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
21 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
22 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 23 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 24 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 25 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).
