REQUEST FOR ORDER ATTORNEYS FEES AND COSTS

TENTATIVE RULING

Having read and considered the pleadings, declarations, and other evidence submitted in this matter, the Court makes the following findings and orders:

A. Procedural History

- 1) The parties are Petitioner Lucia Waterman (Mother) and Respondent Matthew Charles (Father). They share one minor child: Lyla (DOB: 9/23/22).
- 2) At the 8/21/25 hearing, the Court awarded Father $45,000 in attorney's fees and costs under Family Code section 7605.
- 3) On 3/20/26, Father filed a Request for Order seeking $50,000 in attorney's fees and costs under Family Code section 7605.
- 4) On 3/20/26, Father filed an Income and Expense Declaration.
- 5) On 3/20/26, Father filed an attorney declaration substantiating his request for $50,000 for prospective and anticipated attorney fees and costs to cure loans used to satisfy attorney fees and costs already incurred, which states Father has paid $110,425 in attorney fees and costs to date.
- 6) On 4/1/26, Father filed a Substitution of Attorney indicating he is now self-representing.
- 7) On 4/9/26, the matter was continued from 5/28/26 to 6/9/26 by agreement of the parties.

- 1 8) On 5/27/26, Mother filed a Responsive Declaration in opposition to Father's Request for Order.
2 Mother asserts that Father's request completely disregards the Court's 8/21/25 ruling. Mother
3 further asserts that Father's attorney declaration lacks specificity as to what work was performed,
4 when that work was performed, and what ongoing work is anticipated. Mother states that counsel
5 for Father has since substituted out, so Father no longer has attorney's fees to pay.
6 9) On 5/27/26, Mother filed an Income and Expense Declaration.

7 B. Findings and Order

- 8 1) Father's request for an additional $50,000 in attorney's fees and costs under Family Code section
9 7605 is DENIED.
10 2) While the Court previously made a finding (at the prior 8/21/25 hearing) that there is a significant 11 disparity in income and access to funds to pay attorney's fees between the parties, the Court also 12 awarded Father $45,000 in attorney's and costs to be applied to all fees incurred to date as well as 13 all fees incurred through and including the 1/13/25 hearing.
14 3) Per Father's Income and Expense Declaration filed 3/20/26, Father paid $110,425 in total 15 attorney's fees and costs (from the attorney's fee award set forth above and using his parents as a 16 source of funds) and still owes $0.
17 4) Thereafter (on 4/1/26), Father filed a Substitution of Attorney indicating he is now self-18 representing.
19 5) The Court recognizes that pro per litigants who lack the financial ability to hire an attorney may 20 request a reasonable amount of attorney's fees and costs to retain counsel under Family Code
21 section 7605; however, Father did not request attorney's fees and costs for that purpose.
22 6) The Court will prepare the Findings and Order After Hearing.

- 1) The parties are Petitioner Florence Bienvenu (Mother) and Respondent Colin Matichak (Father).
- 2) They share one minor child: Esme (DOB: 5/11/24).
- 3) The genesis of this hearing is a Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order (DVRO) that was granted (see Restraining Order After Hearing filed 7/2/25), protecting Mother from Father for a period of two years and containing custody and visitation orders.
- 4) At the 9/9/25 hearing, the Court modified the parenting plan such that Father's visitation would occur on Saturdays and Sundays from 1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m. at the North Beach Playground in San Francisco. The visits were to be non-professionally supervised by a mutually agreed-upon supervisor. The Court set a review hearing on 12/4/25 and ordered both parties to submit proposed step-up plans no later than 10 days before the hearing.

- 1 5) On 12/4/25, both parties and their counsel appeared at hearing and the Court made a finding of 2 good cause to continue the matter to 1/22/26.
- 3 6) On 1/22/26, the parties appeared with counsel and the Court issued the following orders:
- 4 a. Set a review of custody, visitation, and remaining financial issues for 4/2/26.
- 5 b. Denied Petitioner's request for an independent medical examination.
- 6 c. Ordered Father to have unsupervised visitation with the minor child on Saturdays from 7 10:30 a.m. – 5:30 p.m. and Sundays from 1:00 p.m. – 3:00 p.m. starting the weekend of 8 1/24/26 – 1/26/26, with Father responsible for pick up and drop offs with exchanges to 9 occur at North Beach Police Station.
- 10 d. Permitted Mother to designate another party to perform the exchanges, and any 11 information regarding exchanges or the third party appointed for exchanges shall be 12 communicated via counsel.
- 13 7) On 3/6/26, Mother filed an ex parte request seeking emergency orders that "Father's visits shall 14 be professionally supervised pending evaluation of the child by the Child Trauma Research
15 Program."
- 16 8) On 3/6/26, Father filed a Responsive Declaration wherein he asked the Court to deny Mother's 17 emergency requests.
- 18 9) On 3/6/26, the Court; acting out of an abundance of caution, suspended Father's visitation 19 pending the evaluation.
- 20 10) On 3/20/26, the Court received and reviewed an "Investigation Narrative," which determined that 21 allegations of sexual abuse were inconclusive. The report is dated 3/2/26 and signed by 22 Protective Services Worker, Alia Hauwert and Protective Services Supervisor, Diana Martinez
23 Garcia. The determination that no "safety risks" between Father and the minor child were found 24 was important to Court.
- 25 11) At the prior 3/26/26 hearing, the Court confirmed that Mother continues to have sole legal and 26 sole physical custody and reinstated Father's unsupervised visitation. Based on the parties'
27 agreement, the Court continued the hearing set for 4/2/26 (review of custody, visitation, and 28 financial matters (see 1/22/26 order)) to 5/26/26.
- 29

1 12) On 4/16/26, Mother filed a Request for Domestic Violence Restraining Order, which was set to 2 be heard on 5/6/26.

3 13) On 5/6/26, the Court issued a 1st Amended Temporary Restraining Order wherein the Court –
4 based on the allegations against Father and out of an abundance of caution – ordered Father’s
5 visits be immediately (temporarily) suspended and denied Father’s request for supervised visits.
6 The Court issued the following additional relevant orders:

- 7 a. Matter is set for trial setting on 6/1/26 in Department 405 at 1:30 p.m.
- 8 b. The parties are already scheduled to appear in Court on 5/26/26 at 9:00 a.m. in 9 Department 403. This hearing shall be limited to financial matters only, including a 10 request for attorney fees by Mother. Both parties shall file and serve current Income and 11 Expense Declarations by 5/19/26.
- 12 c. Family Court Services is directed to conduct a Tier II investigation and prepare a report 13 regarding information gathered from CPS regarding this case.
- 14 d. The parties shall return for a review of custody and visitation issues and status of Tier II
15 report on 6/23/26 at 9:00 a.m. in Department 403.

16 14) On 5/14/26, the 5/26/26 hearing was continued to 6/9/26. The Court notes the issues set for 17 hearing on 5/26/26 were limited to Father’s 10/16/25 Request for Order and Mother’s oral request
18 for Family Code section 2030 attorney fees only.

19 B. Findings and Order

- 20 1) All issues related to child custody and visitation are presently set for hearing on 6/23/26 and will 21 not be adjudicated on 6/9/26.

22
23 II. Financial Matters

24 A. Procedural History

- 25 1) On 7/30/24, Mother filed a Petition for Dissolution in related case no. FDI-24-800082 indicating 26 that the date of marriage is 1/19/22 and date of separation is 5/21/24 for a marriage of 2 years and 27 4 months.
- 28 2) On 9/5/24, Father filed a Response and Request for Dissolution in related case no. FDI-24-29 800082 indicating that the date of marriage is 1/19/22 and date of separation is 8/6/24.

- 1 3) On 10/1/24, the Court made child support ($2,758) and temporary spousal support ($3,408)
2 orders with Smith/Ostler bonus support effective 7/5/24. The parties were ordered to meet and 3 confer regarding arrears for the period of 7/5/24-9/30/24 considering any voluntary support
4 Father paid. The Court also awarded Mother $39,975 in Family Code section 2030 attorney's 5 fees.
- 6 4) On 10/16/25, Father filed a Request for Order and Memorandum of Points and Authorities
7 seeking: (a) termination of spousal support as Father paid support for half the length of a short-
8 term marriage; (b) bifurcation and termination of marital status, with Mother responsible for 9 obtaining and paying for her own health insurance and Father maintaining health insurance for 10 the minor child; and (c) permission to remove Mother from Father's car insurance, which the 11 Court understands is moot. Father asserts that since July of 2024 to date he paid Mother $156,855 12 ($93,518 in child and spousal support plus $10,097.79 in bonus support plus $38,242 in rent and 13 utilities for May 2024- November 2024). Father asserts that there is no compelling reason for the 14 Court to deny his request for bifurcation and termination of marital status and he is current on all 15 support payments. Father states both parties have served their Preliminary Declarations of 16 Disclosure. It is Father's position that he made a global settlement proposal on 8/31/25 and 17 Mother did not provide any response. The matter was originally set for hearing on 12/30/25.
- 18 5) On 10/16/25, Father filed an Income and Expense Declaration.
- 19 6) At hearing on 12/4/25, the Court continued the 12/30/25 hearing date to 1/22/26.
- 20 7) On 1/8/26, Mother filed a Responsive Declaration and supportive pleading in opposition to 21 Father's Request for Order in related case no. FDI-24-800082. Mother requests the Court: (a)
22 order Father to continue to pay guideline temporary spousal support until the parties' assets and 23 debts are divided; (b) deny Father's request for bifurcation and termination of marital status as it
24 is barred by statute (Family Code section 2337) since Mother relies on Father's employer
25 provided health insurance; and (c) issue $2,500 in Family Code section 271 sanctions against 26 Father for his failure to meet and confer prior to filing the instant request. Mother asserts that 27 Father unnecessarily increased fees by filing this Request for Order because Mother will not be
28 able to afford living in San Francisco without spousal support, she depends on Father's employer
29 provided health insurance, and Father's retirement account has not yet been joined or divided.

1 Mother further asserts that Father has not complied with prior orders regarding support arrears
2 ($23,345.40), bonus support ($30,472.66), and reimbursement of health insurance copays
3 ($10,642). It is Mother's position that Father made an incomplete global settlement proposal on 4 8/31/25 and she is awaiting his responses to informal discovery as she does not have the funds to 5 conduct formal discovery.

6 8) On 1/14/26, Father filed a Reply Declaration reiterating his position that as of December 2025 he
7 has paid Mother temporary spousal support for half the length of a short-term marriage. Father
8 states that he cannot afford to continue paying support obligations. Father asserts he has paid
9 Mother $83,804.00 in support over the past year, $50,573.00 in attorney fees, and she will also 10 receive an additional $35,000 in attorney's fees from the parties' jointly filed tax return. Father
11 believes Mother can become self-supporting and termination of marital status is not barred by 12 statute.

13 9) At the prior 1/22/26 hearing, the Court granted Mother's s request that the Court order Father to 14 reimburse Mother $10,642 in health insurance copays and reserved jurisdiction over the 15 remaining financial issues for hearing on 4/2/26.

16 10) At the prior 3/26/26 hearing on custody and visitation, the parties agreed to continue the 4/2/26
17 hearing to 5/26/26.

18 11) At the prior 5/6/26 hearing, Mother made an oral request for Family Code section 2030 attorney's 19 fees and costs.

20 12) On 5/14/26, the 5/26/26 hearing was continued to 6/9/26 for adjudication of Father's 10/16/25
21 Request for Order and Mother's oral request for Family Code section 2030 attorney fees. See 22 Continuance Order filed 5/14/26.

23 13) On 5/18/26, Mother filed an update declaration stating that the parties reached an agreement on 24 4/13/26 that they would jointly file tax returns for 2025. Mother asserts the parties discussed
25 possibly filing joint tax returns for 2026 if Mother can remain covered under Father's employer-26 provided health insurance until the end of 2026 (i.e., judgment of dissolution be entered after 27 12/31/26). Mother requests unpaid support ($23,345.40 as ordered on 10/1/24) and bonus support 28 ($30,472.66 as ordered on 10/1/24) arears be ordered paid within 30 days and reimbursement of 29 $6,213 in health-insurance copays that were paid to Father by the insurer. Mother requests

1 $50,000 in attorney's fees to prepare for and participate in the upcoming four-day domestic 2 violence trial.

3 14) On 5/18/26, Mother filed an updated Income and Expense Declaration.

4 15) On 5/19/26, Father filed an updated Income and Expense Declaration.

5 B. Findings and Order

6 1) Bifurcation and Termination of Marital Status: Public policy favors bifurcation and 7 termination of marital status. Since denial of such a request would conflict with public policy, the 8 opposing party must show compelling evidence that actual prejudice would result. See Gionis v.
9 Sup.Ct. (1988) 202 CCA3d 786, 788-90.

10 2) Based on the pleadings filed with the Court and signed under penalty of perjury, the Court finds 11 that Mother did not meet this burden. The Court further finds that:

- 12 a. Mother filed for a Petition for Dissolution on 7/30/24.
 - 13 b. Father filed a Response and Request for Dissolution on 9/5/24.
 - 14 c. Under Family Code section 2339(a), the Court first acquired jurisdiction over Father 15 when Father was served with Mother's Petition and Summons on 9/5/24.
 - 16 d. Within the Petition and Response, both parties indicate that they were residents of 17 California for at least six months and of San Francisco County for at least three months
18 immediately preceding the filing of the Petition.
 - 19 e. Within the Petition and Response, both parties request a divorce based on irreconcilable 20 differences.
 - 21 f. On 11/14/24, Father filed a Declaration Regarding Service of Declaration
22 of Disclosure stating that his Preliminary Declaration of Disclosure was served on the 23 other party's attorney by email on 11/8/24.
 - 24 g. In Father's Request for Separate Trial (attached to Father's Request for Order), he listed 25 the following retirement plans under the prompt "All pension or retirement plans in 26 which the community has an interest are listed below": Fidelity – Apple 401k Plan
27 xx7886 (in Respondent's name). The Court finds that this type of retirement account does 28 require joinder to this action under Family Code section 2337(d).
- 29

- 1 3) Based on the foregoing, Father's request to bifurcate and terminate the parties' marital status is 2 GRANTED. Each party is restored to their previous single status as of 6/9/26. The Court finds 3 that this termination date meets the requirement set forth in Family Code section 2339(a).
- 4 4) As set forth in the attached Bifurcation of Status of Marriage or Domestic Partnership (FL-347),
5 the protections of Family Code section 2337I(1)-(9) shall apply against Father until judgment is 6 entered and becomes final on all remaining issues. In Father's pleadings he states that he cannot 7 maintain Apple coverage if status is terminated. Based on a preponderance of the evidence
8 presented the Court finds that Father is financially able to comply with the requirement to provide
9 and maintain – at his own expense –comparable health insurance coverage for Mother. Father
10 conceded he will do so if ordered by the Court. If comparable coverable is not available, Father
11 shall be responsible for Mother's health and medical care to the extent the care would have been 12 covered absent dissolution. Father shall indemnify and hold Mother harmless from any adverse 13 consequences resulting from the loss of existing coverage.
- 14 5) The parties are reminded that despite the termination of their marital status, the Standard Family
15 Law Restraining Orders set forth in the Summons continue to apply to both parties per Family
16 Code section 233(a).
- 17 6) The Court's jurisdiction to adjudicate all remaining issues (including the issues outlined below) in 18 this dissolution matter is reserved under Family Code section 2337(f).
- 19 7) Termination of Spousal Support: Per Marriage of Burlini (1983) 143 Cal.App.3d 65, 20 "Temporary spousal support is utilized to maintain the living conditions and standards of the 21 parties in as close to the status quo position as possible pending trial and the division of their 22 assets and obligations."
- 23 8) Here, the Court adopted Father's proposed support calculation and issued a temporary monthly 24 spousal support order of $3,408 on 10/1/24.
- 25 9) For spousal support termination requests, a court must consider all the Family Code
26 section 4320 factors; therefore, the Court applies the following Family Code
27 section 4320 analysis:
- 28 10) The extent to which the earning capacity of each party is sufficient to maintain the standard of 29 living established during the marriage, taking into account all of the following: (i) The

1 marketable skills of the supported party; the job market for those skills; the time and expenses
2 required for the supported party to acquire the appropriate education or training to develop
3 those skills; and the possible need for retraining or education to acquire other, more marketable
4 skills or employment. (ii) The extent to which the supported party's present or future earning 5 capacity is impaired by periods of unemployment that were incurred during the marriage to 6 permit the supported party to devote time to domestic duties.

- 7 a. Regarding the marital standard of living, Father reports that the parties maintained an 8 upper-class lifestyle during marriage that exceeded their financial means including living
9 in a luxury apartment and purchasing two luxury cars. Father states that the parties
10 carried credit card debt to cover basic living expenses, though he was able to set aside
11 some savings through equity compensation from his employment at Apple. Father states
12 that the parties have $260,000 in loans associated with using in-vitro fertilization (IVF)
13 and surrogacy to start a family.
- 14 b. Mother agrees that the parties maintained an upper-class lifestyle during marriage and 15 adds that the parties frequently traveled for leisure and maintained an active social 16 lifestyle. Mother asserts that this lifestyle was supported by Father's income and the 17 parties were able to able to set aside retirement savings and investments.
- 18 c. It is undisputed that Father is employed by Apple and his income supported the parties
19 during marriage, while Mother has been unemployed since 2020 when the parties moved 20 from Canada to the United States (U.S.) for Father's job. Mother worked as a securities 21 attorney in Canada prior to moving to the U.S. Mother is not licensed as an attorney in 22 the U.S.
- 23 d. Father reports that Mother was never unemployed to devote time to domestic duties or to 24 support Father's career, rather her decision to remain unemployed was voluntary. Father
25 states that when Mother was employed, she earned $12,500 per month and she is highly 26 educated (has a Juris Doctor/law degree) and speaks multiple languages. Father believes 27 Mother is reasonably employable in the current job market even without taking the 28 California Bar Exam.

- 1 a. Mother reports to secure gainful employment she would need to prepare for the 2 California Bar Exam or seek other training as she has been out of the workforce for five
3 years. Mother believes she is currently unable to earn an income to support herself as she 4 is the primary caregiver of the parties' daughter and suffers repercussions of domestic 5 violence.

6 1) The extent to which the supported party contributed to the attainment of an education, training, a 7 career position, or a license by the supporting party.

- 8 a. Mother left her job as a securities attorney in Canada to support Father's employment at 9 Apple by moving to the U.S. (San Francisco) where she is not licensed to practice law.

10 2) The ability of the supporting party to pay spousal support, taking into account the supporting 11 party's earning capacity, earned and unearned income, assets, and standard of living.

- 12 a. Father reports that he cannot afford to pay spousal support as the lifestyle the parties
13 maintained exceeded their means and he is responsible for significant community debt.
14 As of October 2025, Father reports carrying approximately $63,000 in outstanding credit 15 card debt, $91,000 in surrogacy loans, and $361,440 in student loans.

- 16 b. Per Father's Income and Expense Declaration filed 10/16/25, Father earns an average
17 monthly income of $17,320 and $8,333 in employee stock grant vesting. Father lists 18 $8,223 in cash assets, $18,571 in easily saleable funds, -$440,993 in personal property, 19 and $16,024 in average monthly expenses.

- 20 c. Per Father's updated Income and Expense Declaration filed 5/19/26, Father earns an 21 average monthly income of $17,993.26 and $3,237.50 in monthly bonuses. Father lists
22 $12,658.07 in cash assets, $45,334.73 in easily saleable funds, -$337,080.07 in personal 23 property, and $17,932.24 in average monthly expenses.

24 3) The needs of each party based on the standard of living established during the marriage.

- 25 a. Father reports that he is unable to afford his average monthly expenses without 26 termination of the spousal support order.
27 b. Mother asserts that she cannot afford to live in San Francisco and care for the child if 28 support is terminated. Mother states that she cannot afford the marital standard of living 29 even with the temporary spousal support order in place.

- 1 c. According to Mother, Father lives in a two-bedroom apartment in Palo Alto and 2 continues to travel frequently, while Mother and the minor child live in a studio
3 apartment in San Francisco.
- 4 d. According to Father, his income cannot sustain two separate households at the level of 5 spending that existed during marriage.

6 4) The obligations and assets, including the separate property, of each party.

- 7 a. Mother reports that she has no separate property, carries credit card debt, and has taken
8 loans from family to pay for attorney's fees. Mother asserts that Father has exclusive 9 access to all community property assets.
- 10 b. Father reports his assts include Sofi Savings x6414; Chase Checking x0402; Chase
11 Checking x5635; Royal Bank of Canada x6106; Sofi Checking x8922; E*Trade from 12 Morgan Stanley x0761 - Cash Balance; Fidelity - Apple 401k Plan xx7886; Optum Bank
13 HSA x973; and credit card rewards points.
- 14 c. Father reports his debts include Student Loans Nelnet x5483; SoFi Bank Personal Loan
15 x8633; Chase x0924; Chase x7561; Apple x8154; Family loan -attorney's fees; Personal 16 loan - Cal & Wendy Matichak.

17 5) The duration of the marriage.

- 18 a. The parties appear to agree that the date of marriage is 1/19/22 and date of separation is 19 5/21/24 for a marriage of 2 years and 4 months (per each party's FL-157).

20 6) The ability of the supported party to engage in gainful employment without unduly interfering 21 with the interests of dependent children in the custody of the party.

- 22 a. The parties share one child, Esme, who is 2 years old (DOB: 5/11/24). Esme remains in 23 the care of Mother outside of Father's court ordered visitation, which is temporarily 24 suspended at this time.
- 25 b. According to Mother, Esme is not yet pre-school aged so Mother believes she is currently 26 unable to earn an income to support herself as she is the primary caretaker of Esme.
- 27 c. Mother asserts that the parties agreed that Mother would care for Esme full-time when 28 she was born.

29 7) The age and health of the parties.

- a. Mother is 34 years old.
- b. Father is 38 years old.
- c. Both parties report that Mother has physical and mental health conditions. Mother asserts that these conditions prevent her from seeking employment, which Father disputes.
- d. Mother states that Father is diagnosed bipolar but has maintained full-time employment. Father asserts that he experienced “a single, isolated mental health emergency precipitated by relational stress with [Mother] and lack of sleep.” Father agrees that he has maintained full-time employment.

8) All documented evidence of any history of domestic violence, as defined in Section 6211, between the parties or perpetrated by either party against either party’s child, including, but not limited to, consideration of: (1) A plea of nolo contendere. (2) Emotional distress resulting from domestic violence perpetrated against the supported party by the supporting party. (3) Any history of violence against the supporting party by the supported party. (4) Issuance of a protective order after a hearing pursuant to Section 6340. (5) A finding by a court during the pendency of a divorce, separation, or child custody proceeding, or other proceeding under Division 10 (commencing with Section 6200), that the spouse has committed domestic violence.

- a. On 7/2/25, the Court granted a two-year restraining order against Father under which Mother is a protected party. See Restraining Order After Hearing filed 7/2/25.
- b. The Court also reviewed and considered the Final Statement of Decision filed 7/28/25.
- c. The parties are in active domestic violence litigation and the matter is currently being set for a multi-day trial.

9) The immediate and specific tax consequences to each party.

- a. The Court does not find that this factor has a significant impact on its analysis, though Father reports that payment of spousal support significantly impacts his financial situation since the obligation to pay spousal support eliminates his ability to contribute to a tax deferred retirement account, thereby removing a potential tax deduction and resulting in higher tax liability.

10) The balance of the hardships to each party.

1 a. Father asserts that continuing to pay spousal support would cause him a hardship as he is
2 unable to pay down community debts because of his spousal support obligation.

3 b. Mother asserts that termination of spousal support would cause her a hardship as she 4 would not be able to afford rent and other living expenses.

5 11) The goal that the supported party shall be self-supporting within a reasonable period of time.

6 Except in the case of a marriage of long duration as described in Section 4336, a “reasonable
7 period of time” for purposes of this section generally shall be one-half the length of the marriage.
8 However, nothing in this section is intended to limit the court’s discretion to order support for a
9 greater or lesser length of time, based on any of the other factors listed in this section, Section 10 4336, and the circumstances of the parties.

11 a. This is a short-term marriage of 2 years and 4 months, and Father has already paid
12 spousal support for half the length of marriage. No evidence was presented that Mother 13 has made any effort to become self-supporting. However, based on a totality of the 14 circumstances, the Court finds it is reasonable for Mother to continue to rely on spousal 15 support at this time.

16 12) The criminal conviction of an abusive spouse shall be considered in making a reduction or 17 elimination of a spousal support award in accordance with Section 4324.5 or 4325.

18 a. No evidence was presented that either party has been criminally convicted for domestic 19 violence.

20 13) Any other factors the court determines are just and equitable.

21 a. There are no additional factors beyond the ones described above.

22 14) Based on the forgoing, Father’s request for termination of spousal support is DENIED without 23 prejudice.

24 15) Mother is hereby put on notice that failure to make reasonable good faith efforts to become self-
25 supporting may be one of the factors considered by the Court as a basis for terminating spousal 26 support in the future.

27 16) Father’s request for permission to remove Mother from his car insurance is MOOT as the parties
28 agreed that Father can remove Mother from his car insurance plan.
29

1 17) Mother's request that the Court order Father to reimburse Mother $6,213 in health insurance
2 copays is GRANTED as Mother provided documentary proof of the costs she incurred. See 3 Exhibit 2 of Mother's update declaration filed 5/18/26.

4 16) Mother's request for $50,000 in Family Code section 2030 attorney's fees is DNEIED as there is 5 no statutory basis to make a request for attorney's fees to prepare for and participate in the 6 upcoming four-day domestic violence trial under Family Code section 2030.

7 18) The parties are ordered to meet and confer regarding unpaid support and bonus support arrears
8 Father may owe to Mother, and Father is encouraged to cure all unpaid support and bonus arrears 9 forthwith.

10 19) Mother's request for Family Code section 271 sanctions is DENIED. The Court cannot find that 11 Father's conduct frustrated the policy of law to encourage cooperation and settlement between the 12 parties.

13 20) Father's counsel shall prepare the written order after hearing and submit a Judgment terminating 14 marital status and reserving the Court's jurisdiction over all other issues (with an FL-347 that 15 mirrors the terms of the FL-347 attached hereto).

16 21) Preparation of Order: If you are directed by the court to prepare the order after hearing – within 17 10 calendar days of the hearing you must either: (a) Serve the proposed order to the other
18 party/counsel for approval, and follow the procedures set forth in CA Rules of Court, Rule
19 5.125(c), or (b) If the other party did not appear or the matter was uncontested, submit the 20 proposed order after hearing directly to the court. Failure to submit the order after hearing within 21 10 days may allow the other party to prepare a proposed order and submit it to the court in 22 accordance with CA Rules of Court, Rule 5.125(d).

ATTACHMENT TO ☐ JUDGMENT (FL-180) ☒ FINDINGS AND ORDER AFTER HEARING (FL-340)

The court grants the request of ☐ petitioner ☒ respondent to bifurcate and grant a separate trial on the issue of the dissolution of the status of the marriage or domestic partnership apart from other issues.

THE COURT FINDS

1. A preliminary declaration of disclosure with a completed schedule of assets and debts and income and expense declaration has been served on the nonmoving party, or the parties have stipulated in writing to defer service of the preliminary declaration of disclosure until a later time.
2. Each retirement or pension plan of the parties has been joined as a party to the proceeding for dissolution unless joinder is precluded or made unnecessary by applicable law.

THE COURT ORDERS

3. a. To preserve the claims of each party in all retirement plan benefits on entry of judgment granting a dissolution of the status of the marriage or domestic partnership, the court makes one of the following orders for each retirement plan in which either party is a participant:
 - (1) A final domestic relations order or qualified domestic relations order under Family Code section 2610 disposing of each party's interest in retirement plan benefits, including survivor and death benefits.
 - (2) An interim order preserving the nonemployee party's right to retirement plan benefits, including survivor and death benefits, pending entry of judgment on all remaining issues.
 - (3) A provisional order on Pension Benefits—Attachment to Judgment (form FL-348) incorporated as an attachment to the judgment of dissolution of the status of marriage or domestic partnership (Judgment (Family Law) (form FL-180)). 5. b. ☒ Health insurance

Until judgment has been entered on all remaining issues and has become final, the ☐ petitioner ☒ respondent must maintain all existing health and medical insurance coverage for the other party, and that party must also maintain any minor children as named dependents, as long as that party is eligible to do so. If at any time during this period the ☐ petitioner ☒ respondent is not eligible to maintain that coverage, that party must, at his or her sole expense, provide and maintain health and medical insurance coverage that is comparable to the existing health and medical insurance coverage to the extent it is available.

If that coverage is not available, the ☐ petitioner ☒ respondent is responsible for paying the health and medical care for the other party and the minor children to the extent that care would have been covered by the existing insurance coverage but for the dissolution of marital status or domestic partnership, and will otherwise indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any adverse consequences resulting from the loss or reduction of the existing coverage. "Health and medical insurance coverage" includes any coverage under any group or individual health or other medical plan, fund, policy, or program.

d. ☒ Probate family allowance

Until judgment has been entered on all remaining issues and has become final, the ☐ petitioner ☒ respondent must indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any adverse consequences to the other party if the bifurcation results in the loss of the rights of the other party to a probate family allowance as the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner.

e. ☒ Retirement benefits

Except for any retirement plan, fund, or arrangement identified in any order issued and attached as set out in paragraph 3, until judgment has been entered on all remaining issues and has become final, the ☐ petitioner ☒ respondent must indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any adverse consequences to the other party if the bifurcation results in the loss of the other party's rights with respect to any retirement, survivor, or deferred compensation benefits under any plan, fund, or arrangement, or to any elections or options associated with them, to the extent that the other party would have been entitled to those benefits or elections as the spouse or surviving spouse or the domestic partner or surviving domestic partner of the moving party.

f. ☒ Social security benefits

The moving party must indemnify and hold the other party harmless from any adverse consequences if the bifurcation results in the loss of rights to social security benefits or elections to the extent the other party would have been entitled to those benefits or elections as the surviving spouse or surviving domestic partner of the moving party.
