				4. Future Trust accountings and supervision: It is recommended the Court order that the future Petitions to approve the accountings related to this Trust be filed in a separate probate case number, to be assigned upon the filing of the first account and report, fourteen months from the Trust's creation. The first account should cover a twelve month period, and the additional two months are for preparation before filing the same.

Subject to the rules below, attorneys and parties to a case may now contact the Probate Research Department using the following email: probate@slo.courts.ca.gov.

The following rules apply to use of the foregoing email address. An email that does not comply with the requirements below may not be reviewed.

1. Emails must be related only to a Probate Note (past or present).
 - a. The following exceptions apply: (1) A party or attorney has specifically received an email from the Court on an issue requiring response; or (2) the Court directed an email be sent to the Probate Research Department (Examples: Solicited email from a bench officer or a Court Attorney or information ordered to be provided via email by bench officer in Court).
2. Emails must contain:
 - a. Subject Line: Hearing Date, Time, Department, Case Number and Case Name (Example: 10/1/19, 9:00, D99, 18PR0000, Estate of John Smith).
 - b. First Line of Email Body: Case Number, Case Name, and Description of the pleading on the calendar.
 - c. Reason for Request.

d. No Attachments.

3. Further, email inquiries must conform to the following guidelines:
 - a. Questions must be from an attorney or party on the case.
 - b. The Court's response after the initial reply is limited to one email message per calendar matter, per hearing.
 - c. The body of the email (Reason for Request under item 2.c.) is limited to (5) lines to each deficiency or issue.
 - d. Emails may only inquire into clarifications regarding the Probate Note. This includes clarifying language, code sections, court rules and policies related to the Probate Note. Disputes regarding requirements or issues raised in the Probate Note may not be made via email.
 - e. Emails advising the Court of possible oversights may be sent.
 - f. Continuances may not be requested via the probate email address.
4. This email procedure is NOT to be utilized for:
 - a. Any requests for legal advice (including, but not limited to, how to clear the Probate Note), case management, and/or a recommendation for an attorney.
 - b. Confirmation of documents received by the Court. Please refer to the conformed copy of your filed document to confirm the Court's receipt. If you have not received a conformed copy of your document, please contact the Civil Clerk's Office.
 - c. Confirmation that documents have been reviewed.
5. Response Time. All correspondence will be addressed on a priority basis according to the hearing date. The Probate Research Department will make every effort to respond within two Court days of receipt of the email.
