				terms of the Trust. (See Settlement Agreement, Section 3.B.3., Revocable Trust, dated Sept. 12, 2012, Section 9, Payment of Debts, Expenses and Taxes.) Nothing in the Petition or Settlement Agreement indicates trust administration would not be completed, with payment of any proven expenses per the terms of the Trust, before distribution. As such, it is recommended this Objection be overruled, as the settlement of ultimate distribution between beneficiaries after administration, will not affect the creditor claim payment, if proven. 4. Supplemental Objection by Ramsbacher Prokey Leonard LLP and Dennis Leonard, as an individual, (10/2/25). This “Supplemental Objection” raises an issue with the Guardian ad Litem, which was addressed via the separate affirmative Petition of the same nature. That Petition was resolved by the Ruling dated July 9, 2026. This Objection is recommended to be overruled.
