Tentative Ruling:

The probate court retains discretion to decide not only whether costs should be paid, but also, if they are awarded, who will pay and who will recover them. (Prob. Code, § 1002.). Thomas Krause filed his memorandum of costs on 12/28/2021. Any decision on that filing has been in abeyance for 5 ½ years while this matter has wound its way through the trial court and the California Appellate Court. Heather Holden-Bodmann then filed her motion to strike costs and request to order Thomas Krause to pay her appellate costs, which was awarded by the Fourth District Court of Appeal. Thomas Krause has not replied to that motion. In exercising its discretion, the Court GRANTS Holden-Bodmann's unopposed Motion to: (1) Strike the Memorandum of Costs of Thomas Krouse; and (2) Direct Thomas Krouse to Pay Costs Heather Holden-Bodmann's Appellate Costs, as Reflected in her Memorandum of Costs on Appeal, to Heather Holden-Bodmann Pursuant to CRC 8.278(a)(4). Thomas Krause is not entitled to his costs as a matter of right, and the years' worth of prolonged unsuccessful litigation on his part in no way supports an exercise of discretion in his favor. Thomas Krause shall make full payment to Heather Holden-

Line 4	Petitioner: LASSAHN, T. ANNE (VALE, ROBERT D.) Objector: Johnson, Cindy (Pro Se)	Petition Hearing

Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE OPTIONAL (Zoom allowed)

The petition is rife with confusing errors as to which of the three accounts is being described in paragraphs 16 through 18. Petitioner has repeatedly mislabeled which account covers which time frame; moreover, the petition identifies the Fourth account in every period of accounting offered.

For example, paragraph 16 begins with "A true and correct copy of the Third, Fourth and Fifth Account And Report Of Trustee for the period July 1, 2021 through December 31, 2022." Are all three accountings for that 18-month period?

Then at 16 a) it reads “Trust Estate on Hand at Commencement of Fourth Accounting Period... total Trust Estate on hand as of July 1, 2021, the commencement of the accounting period covered by the Trustee’s Fourth Account

This begs the question: what period begins with July 2, 2021: is it the Third? Fourth? Fifth?

More confusion ensues with 16 h) which begins “Property on Hand at End of Fourth Accounting Period. The total Trust Estate on hand as of December 31, 2022, the end of the third accounting

Again the question is: is it the Third or Fourth accounting which ends on December 31, 2022?

The Fourth Accounting makes another appearance at paragraph 17, which begins, “A true and correct copy of the Fourth Account and Report of Trustee covering the period from January 1, 2023 to June 30, 2025 is attached as Exhibit “M” Here the court is informed that the Fourth Account, rather than beginning July 1, 2021, actually begins January 1, 2023. The petition, however, contradicts itself immediately thereafter, providing yet another time period for the elusive Fourth Account.

Paragraph 18 does not escape reference to the Fourth Account either, for it reads as follows, in part:

18. A true and correct copy of the Fifth Account And Report Of Trustee covering the period from July 1, 2025 to November 30, 2025 is attached hereto as Exhibit “N”

18a) Trust Estate on Hand at Commencement of Fourth Accounting Period. The total Trust Estate on hand as of July 1, 2025, the commencement of the accounting period covered by the Trustee’s Fifth Account and Report, consisted of assets with a value of $1,167,173.80, as set forth on page 2 of Exhibit “N”.

18 h) Property on Hand at End of Fourth Accounting Period. The total Trust Estate on hand as of November 30, 2025, the end of the fourth accounting period, is comprised of assets having a total carry value of $1,181,203.11, and a total market value of $1,181,203.11 as described on Schedule F of Exhibit “N”.

Petitioner is ordered to file within 30 days a supplemental to its petition which correctly sets out which of the three accounts is covering which accounting period. The fact that the attorneys and trustee presumably read this portion of the petition is disconcerting in that no one caught this mass of confusion. The Court encourages petitioner and counsel to better proof-read before filing future pleadings. The court is not going to require an amended petition for approval, but just a supplement which fixes these obvious errors.

Cindy Johnson has filed an objection to the petition, but has not stated with specificity what her objection is based on. The Court orders her to file a supplemental within 45 days which specifically describes what she refers to as "several misconducts of the Scott Trust"

The matter is continued to September 29, 2026 at 9:00 a.m.

Line 5	Petitioner: SINGH, CHARANPREET (KRISHAN, GOPAL) Decedent: SINGH, AMANDEEP Proposed Personal Representative: SINGH, CHARANPREET	Probate of Will and Letters Testamentary Hearing

Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE ORDERED

An amended petition was filed after the Court, at the last hearing, pointed out numerous procedural defects. The Amended Petition is also problematic. Petitioner has indicated it is both a petition to probate a will, and that a personal representative is sought because the decedent died intestate. It is one or the other, not both.

The petition lists at attachment 8 three persons, who have filed waiver of bonds, but there is no information as to who they are or how they are legal heirs, as none of the potential relationships are explained as set forth in Item 8, which reads: Listed on the next page are the names, relationships to decedent, ages, and addresses, so far as known to or reasonably ascertainable by petitioner, of (1) all persons mentioned in decedent's will or any codicil, whether living or deceased; (2) all persons named or checked in items 2, 5, 6, and 7; and (3) all beneficiaries of a trust named in decedent's will or any codicil in which the trustee and personal representative are the same person.

The Court advised counsel that re-publication would not be required, but that did not dispense with legal notice and proof thereof to heirs. No proof of service is provided. Counsel is to address these deficiencies at the hearing.

In light of Respondents' failure to file an Opposition, the Court GRANTS the unopposed Petition. Former Co Trustees Allan Howard and Linda Howard are ordered to reimburse The Trust for the Trustees' fees they received in the amount of $61,044.00; to reimburse The Trust for the costs associated with the clean-up and repairs of the property at 20 Rollingwood Drive, Jackson, California, in the amount of $66,136.77; and to reimburse The Trust for the costs associated with the IRS and State of California's penalties and late fee in the amount of $6,446.89. Tentative Ruling:

APPEARANCE OPTIONAL [Related matters at lines 7 and 8]

In light of Respondents' failure to file an Opposition, Steven C. Peck's Petition is GRANTED as follows: The Court determines that given the Former Co-Trustees' breaches of trust, the trustee fees of $26,564.94 for the period of January 1, 2018 through September 13, 2023, were not reasonable. The former Co-Trustees are not entitled any fees.

The Court therefore voids the Note Secured by Deed of Trust, in the amount of $26,565.94, dated July 28, 2023. The Former Co-Trustees are ordered to release their lien on the Trust property located at 5540 Sahara Drive, Carnelian Bay, CA 96140.

rendered in sufficient detail to demonstrate the productivity of the time spent and the nature and difficulty of the tasks performed. Just one example is that there is a request for 3 hours spent "preparing for and attending hearing", which was likely attended remotely. This sole charge is over $1,200.00, which on its face seems unreasonable. The billing statements provided include block billing, what appears to be two people billing to review the same email(s), and charges for what is described as "[r]eviewed issues regarding the same" without any information about the "issues" being reviewed or why. There are at least 34 such billing entries with this rather vague description. What appears to be double billing and vague descriptions of services may account for why this request for fees is almost double from the last accounting and request, which was approved
