Probate Notes:

Appearances required.

The following must be submitted pursuant to this Court's order of March 25, 2026:

Status Report. A Report on Status of Administration (Local Form SC-6031) must be filed, containing sufficient allegations to inform the Court of the condition of estate, reasons why the estate cannot be closed now, and the best possible estimate of time it will take to put the estate in a condition to be closed.

Proof of Service of Notice (DE-120). Notice must be given 15 days before hearing to all heirs/devisees of estate, any beneficiaries of a trust if distribution made to trust, persons who requested special notice, or to Attorney General if a devisee is a charitable trust (Prob. Code, §§ 12201(b), 1220). No notice is required to Petitioner/Personal Representative if that person is the sole heir/devisee (Prob. Code, § 1221). Notice should be given to creditors if an estate is insolvent. (Prob. Code, § 11000(a)(5).) Notice should also be given to an assignee of an heir or beneficiary's distribution, or a former personal representative. (Prob. Code, § 12201.)
