Line 4	24CV449537	Anna Demby v. FCA US, LLC et al.	Defendant FCA US, LLC's motion to compel the deposition of plaintiff Anna Demby. The moving party subsequently filed a notice of withdrawal of the motion. The motion is taken OFF CALENDAR.
Line 5	18CV333448	Sudni Foods, LLC et al. v. Christin Christudhas et al.	Plaintiff Sudni Foods, LLC's motion to vacate dismissal and enter judgment by stipulation. (Code Civ. Proc., § 664.6.) Notice is proper and the motion is unopposed. The parties signed two stipulations in 2020, under which defendants would make installment payments to resolve the case. Plaintiffs dismissed the action based on those agreements, with the court retaining jurisdiction to enforce the agreements under Code of Civil Procedure section 664.6. A declaration by plaintiff's counsel indicates plaintiffs received $34,650, and then defendants stopped making payments. On good cause shown, the motion is GRANTED. The dismissal is vacated and plaintiff is entitled to judgment. Plaintiff is entitled to the stipulated judgment of $82,944.33 (consisting of a principal balance of $117,594.33, less payments received of $34,650). Moving party to submit proposed order and proposed judgment, indicating damages of $82,944.33.
Line 6	22CV409227	George Centeno v. General Motors, LLC	Plaintiff George Centeno's motion for attorney fees. Notice is not proper; there is no proof of service. The matter is CONTINUED to January 21, 2027, at 9:00 a.m. in Department 10. Plaintiff is ordered to serve all documents related to the motion, including an updated notice indicating the new hearing date. The court will prepare the order.

Line 7	25CV470875	Deharo Mechanical, Inc. v. San Jose Biocube IV, LLC et al.	Plaintiff Deharo Mechanical, Inc.’s motion to consolidate this action with case No. 25CV471036. Notice is proper and the motion is opposed by defendant Valley Tech Centre Owner, LLC. “When actions involving a common question of law or fact are pending before the court, it may order a joint hearing or trial of any or all the matters in issue in the actions; it may order all the actions consolidated and it may make such orders concerning proceedings therein as may tend to avoid unnecessary costs or delay.” (Code Civ. Proc., § 1048; Villa Zinfandel, LLC v. Bearman (2025) 116 Cal.App.5th 848, 862.) Plaintiff’s reply acknowledges that there are “no fewer than five cases involving the Subject Premises” pending in this court. (Reply, at p.3:23-28.) But plaintiff provides no explanation for why the current motion seeks to consolidate only two of those cases. Nor does plaintiff explain why a piecemeal consolidation of these two cases serves judicial economy when consolidation of additional cases may later be appropriate. Consolidation is premature at this time. The motion is DENIED WITHOUT PREJUDICE. The parties are ordered to meet and confer in advance of the case management conference scheduled for October 27, 2026, to discuss the possibility of consolidating these (and perhaps other) cases that all involve the same subject premises. The court will prepare the order.
