LINE #	CASE #	CASE TITLE	RULING
LINE 9	24CV450420	SAFECO INSURANCE COMPANY OF AMERICA vs ISRAEL DELGADO	Motion: Set Aside and Vacate Dismissal Order Plaintiff moves to set aside the Court’s December 10, 2024 granting Plaintiff’s Dismissal Without Prejudice. Plaintiff explains that Plaintiff’s counsel’s office prematurely filed a Dismissal Without Prejudice in order to “do further research on the Defendant(s) involved in this matter, not realizing that the statute of limitations had run in this case.” Plaintiff’s counsel “attempted to pull the dismissal from being filed but this Court had already filed it on December 10, 2024.” Defendant has not opposed the motion. (See Laguna Auto Body v. Farmers Is. Exchange (1991) 231 Cal.App.3d 481, 489 [“[A]ppellants had ample opportunity to present their arguments and excuses to the trial court. Instead, they failed to file opposition ... leading the trial court and us to presume they had no meritorious arguments.”].) The Court finds Plaintiff has met the requirements for relief under Code Civ. Proc., § 473(b). The motion is GRANTED. The dismissal entered on December 10, 2024 is vacated and set aside. Plaintiff shall prepare the final order within 10 days of the date of the hearing. The matter shall be set for a further Case Management Conference on December 17, 2025 at 10:00 a.m. in Department 13. Plaintiff to give notice.
