SHEWFELT v. CITY OF SANTA CRUZ

PETITION FOR RELIEF FROM GOVERNMENT CLAIMS ACT

As discussed below, the petition is denied.

LAW AND MOTION TENTATIVE RULINGS

DATE: AUGUST 13, 2026 TIME: 8:30 A.M.

I. BACKGROUND AND PETITION

Sabrina Shewfelt (“petitioner”) seeks relief from the Government Claims Act presentation requirements following a trip and fall on City of Santa Cruz property on August 30, 2024. On August 26, 2025, petitioner, through counsel, served an application for late claim relief with the City of Santa Cruz. The application stated that petitioner was seeking relief because she had “serious hardships that delayed her being able to file a claim or seek counsel.” On October 1, 2025, the City of Santa Cruz denied the application on the following grounds: (1) that the application was submitted more than one year after the date of the accident and (2) the application lacked grounds to grant leave pursuant to Government Code section 911.6, subdivision (b).

Petitioner seeks relief from compliance with the Government Claims Act on the following grounds: (1) that the City’s October 1, 2025 denial letter is defective because it erroneously states petitioner’s claim was presented more than a year after accrual of the cause of action and (2) that the City’s denial letter did not address petitioner’s claim of hardship that precluded her from filing her claim in a timely manner.

The City, in its opposition, acknowledges that its denial letter mistakenly stated petitioner’s claim was denied in part because it was filed more than one year after the incident when it was not.¹ The late claimed application was in fact presented within the one year time limitation. However, the City argues that the denial correctly stated the application lacked any grounds for relief pursuant to Government Code section 911.6, subdivision (a). The City asserts petitioner still has not provided a basis for relief under the Government Claims Act and cites no authority that a technically deficient denial letter is a basis for relief. The City notes that even if it had issued no denial letter at all, the application would have been deemed denied. The City maintains petitioner also failed to present evidence to show excusable neglect.

II. LEGAL STANDARDS

If a tort claimant fails to present a claim within six months, they must first pursue the late claims procedure before seeking relief from the court.

Late Claims Procedure:

- Claimant must initially apply to the public entity for leave to present the claim after the 6-month period has expired. (Government Code § 911.4, subd. (a).)² The application must

² All future statutory references are to the Government Code unless otherwise stated.

LAW AND MOTION TENTATIVE RULINGS

DATE: AUGUST 13, 2026 TIME: 8:30 A.M.

be presented within a reasonable time, not to exceed one year after the accrual of the cause of action. (§ 911.4.)

- The governing board of the entity must timely grant or deny the application.
- If the board denies, the claimant may timely petition the superior court for relief from the claim-presentation requirement.

“If the public entity denied the application for leave to present a late claim, the claimant may file a petition for a court order relieving the claimant from the need to comply with Government Code section 945.4. The relief sought is not permission to present a late claim, but an order relieving the claimant from presenting a claim at all.” [Citations.] (Government Tort Liability Practice (CEB 2024) § 7.60).

Petition for an order for relief from § 945.4 must be filed within six months after the late claim application is denied by the public entity or is deemed denied. (§ 946.6.) The six-month period is mandatory. The six-month period means six calendar months or 182 days. (Gonzales v. County of Los Angeles (1988) 199 Cal.App.3d 601.)

Section 946.6 governs the court’s role in assessing claim presentation relief requests.

- (a) If an application for leave to present a claim is denied or deemed to be denied pursuant to Section 911.6, a petition may be made to the court for an order relieving the petitioner from Section 945.4. [...]
- (b) The petition shall show each of the following:
 - (1) That application was made to the board under Section 911.4 and was denied or deemed denied.
 - (2) The reason for failure to present the claim within the time limit specified in Section 911.2.
 - (3) The information required by Section 910.
- (c) The court shall relieve the petitioner from the requirements of Section 945.4 if the court finds that the application to the board under Section 911.4 was made within a reasonable time not to exceed that specified in subdivision (b) of Section 911.4 and was denied or deemed denied pursuant to Section 911.6 and that one or more of the following is applicable:
 - (1) The failure to present the claim was through mistake, inadvertence, surprise, or excusable neglect unless the public entity establishes that it would be prejudiced in the defense of the claim if the court relieves the petitioner from the requirements of Section 945.4.

(2) The person who sustained the alleged injury, damage, or loss was a minor during all of the time specified in Section 911.2 for the presentation of the claim.

(3) The person who sustained the alleged injury, damage, or loss was a minor during any of the time specified in Section 911.2 for the presentation of the claim, provided the application is presented within six months of the person turning 18 years of age or a year after the claim accrues, whichever occurs first.

(4) The person who sustained the alleged injury, damage, or loss was physically or mentally incapacitated during all of the time specified in Section 911.2 or the presentation of the claim and by reason of that disability failed to present a claim during that time.

(5) The person who sustained the alleged injury, damage, or loss was physically or mentally incapacitated during any of the time specified in Section 911.2 for the presentation of the claim and by reason of that disability failed to present a claim during that time, provided the application is presented within six months of the person no longer being physically or mentally incapacitated, or a year after the claim accrues, whichever occurs first.

(6) The person who sustained the alleged injury, damage, or loss died before the expiration of the time specified in Section 911.2 for the presentation of the claim.

III. DISCUSSION

Petitioner failed to provide a sufficient basis for this Court to grant relief.

First, the Court does not find the date error in the City's denial letter automatically affords petitioner relief. Petitioner does not provide any authority for this position and simply asserts relief is appropriate because the denial was defective. Petitioner was provided with notice from the City that her claim was denied and thus, would be expected to either move forward with a petition for relief or forgo her claim. The reason for the denial would not alter that deliberative process.

Second, the City also denied petitioner's application for relief because it lacked grounds to grant leave, citing section 911.6, subdivision (b). Petitioner asserts that her "failure to file a claim form within 6 months with the City was due to excusable neglect including the major physical and personal hardship she was enduring following the subject incident." (Pet. at p. 2.) Petitioner did not file a declaration or provide any evidence to support this claim for excusable neglect, nor any evidence to suggest she somehow detrimentally relied on a defective application denial. There is absolutely no evidence to elaborate on the purported "hardship."

A claimant seeking relief must establish "by a preponderance of the evidence that failure to present their claim on time was through mistake, inadvertence, surprise or excusable neglect."

[Citations.] The showing required of a petitioner seeking leave to file a late claim on these grounds is the same as that required by Code of Civil Procedure section 473 for relieving a party from default judgment. SANTA CRUZ RIVERFRONT ASSOC. v. MEISSER

DEFENDANT LISA M. MEISSER AS TRUSTEE’S MOTION FOR PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

Defendant Meisser’s motion is continued to October 1, 2026, to be heard with her motion to appoint a referee. In the interim, plaintiff Santa Cruz Riverfront Associates, L.P. shall make no distributions to any limited partner, including Meisser.

Plaintiff filed its first amended complaint against Lisa M. Meisser as Trustee of the Everett and Lisa Meisser Trust (“defendant”) for conversion, unjust enrichment, fraud, breach of fiduciary duty and disassociation of limited partner on February 11, 2025. The action relates to a former partnership between Everett Meisser (“Everett”) and Jeffrey Newhouse (“Jeffrey”) and others from 1982 through 1989. The partners formed Santa Cruz Riverfront Associates in 1982 for the purpose of acquiring real property for development. Everett was also the CPA for the firm. At some point, Everett allegedly told the remaining partners that he paid $50,000.00 to the firm in exchange for an 8% limited partnership interest; he also individually received a 4% limited partnership interest. Everett’s general partnership interest ended in 1989. (Second Amended Complaint (“SAC”), ¶¶ 8-23.)

This action was triggered by a 2023 conversation between Jeffrey and Everett, nine months before Everett died. Jeffrey, still a general partner of the firm, was allegedly told by Everett in October 2023 that another partner failed to pay for his 4% interest and that both he (Everett) and this other partner received the 4% interest as part of a bonus received by all general partners at firm formation. However, Jeffrey did not receive that same bonus and asked for an accounting of the bonus; Jeffrey says he never received such nor found any evidence in the firm's records supporting such a bonus. Jeffrey thereafter demanded that Everett return the 4% interest, which he claims Everett refused to do. The firm's counsel sent a letter to Everett requesting evidence that the 4% interest was conferred as a bonus, but did not receive a response. Everett died on June 2, 2024. (SAC ¶¶ 27-23.) Jeffrey believes that Everett's trust includes the ill-gotten 4% interest.

GRANNY PURPS, INC., et al. v. COUNTY OF SANTA CRUZ, et al.

DEFENDANT/CROSS-COMPLAINANT'S MOTION FOR SUMMARY JUDGMENT/ADJUDICATION

Defendant County of Santa Cruz's motion for summary adjudication is granted. Cross-defendants failed to establish, by admissible evidence, the existence of any disputed triable factual issues, as detailed below.

I. FACTUAL AND PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

This case was filed on July 26, 2016, by Granny Purps, Inc., a cannabis cultivator, against the County of Santa Cruz ("the County"), Sheriff Jim Hart and Deputy Frank Gombos, following two Sheriff's Department raids in which 1800 marijuana plants were destroyed in the first raid and 700 in a second raid. The complaint alleges causes of action for negligent destruction of property, conversion, trespass, inverse condemnation, declaratory relief, and preliminary and permanent injunction. On June 23, 2017, Granny Purps filed a first amended complaint and petition for writ of mandate against the same defendants. The first amended complaint alleges causes of action for writ of mandate, conversion, trespass, inverse condemnation, declaratory relief, preliminary and permanent injunction, and specific recovery of property.

On April 25, 2017, Granny Purps filed an amended verified petition for writ of administrative mandamus or writ of mandamus (case no. 17CV00837 or "the Writ Case") against the County concerning the County's denial of a cannabis dispensary license it applied for. On October 12, 2017, the court entered a stipulated judgment against Granny Purps in favor of the County on the County's cross-complaint in the Writ Case. (RJN # 11.) The stipulated judgment was signed by Nancy Black, Nancy Sudman, and Jeffrey Sudman on behalf of Granny Purps. The judgment ordered Granny Purps to pay the County $1,6725,500.00 for fines related to operating an unlicensed dispensary. The judgment stated that by October 31, 2017, Granny Purps was to wind up and dissolve its corporate entity and was to cease all business of any kind, including business transactions, sales or purchases.

DATE: AUGUST 13, 2026 TIME: 8:30 A.M.

On October 18, 2018, the court ruled against Granny Purps in their motion to enforce the judgment pursuant to Code of Civil Procedure section 664.6, finding that Black and the Sudmans had continued to operate Granny Purps despite the court's previous order. On August 5, 2019, the court issued a writ of execution in the amount of $1,805,841.79 against Granny Purps, Jeffrey Sudman, Nancy Sudman, and Nancy Kay Black in the Writ Case.

On June 9, 2021, the County filed this cross-complaint against Canna Consulting, Inc., Granny Purps, Jeffrey Sudman, Nancy Black, and Nancy Sudman for fraudulent transfer, constructive fraudulent transfer, violation of Business and Professions Code section 17200, declaratory relief, and unjust enrichment.

The County's cross-complaint asserts that Granny Purps and Canna Consulting, Inc. are the alter egos of each other. Granny Purps was suspended by the California Franchise Tax Board and was barred from conducting business in California. (X-Compl. at ¶ 2.) The cross-complaint alleges that Granny Purps, Black and the Sudmans jointly and severally owe the County approximately $2.2 million dollars, pursuant to the stipulated judgment in the Writ Case. The cross-complaint contends this case was initially pursued by Granny Purps but during the pendency of this case, its corporate status was suspended, and the named plaintiff changed to Canna Consulting, Inc. (X-Compl. at ¶¶ 19-20.)

On October 1, 2017, Granny Purps, via Nancy Black, transferred all rights, title, and interest in this litigation (case no. 16CV01899) to Jeffrey Sudman. (Decl. of Sewitsky, Ex. A2.) On November 20, 2017, Jeffrey Sudman assigned all rights, title, and interest in this litigation to Canna Consulting, Inc. (X-Compl. at ¶ 21, Decl. of Sewitsky, Ex. A3.)

The County contends these two assignments "are constructively and/or actively fraudulent and violate the terms of the COUNTY JUDGMENT in that they were designed, intended and could deprive the COUNTY of the benefit of that judgment, both monetarily and in terms of agreement upon facts and agreed upon future conduct by the parties to the COUNTY JUDGMENT, which not only precluded GRANNY PURPS' continued engagement in the marijuana dispensary business after October 31, 2017 but also precluded GRANNY PURPS' officers, directors, successors and assignment from engaging such business." (X-Compl. at ¶ 22.) The County emphasizes that the assignment from Granny Purps to Jeffrey Sudman and Jeffrey Sudman's assignment to Canna Consulting "was a self-dealing sham devised to thwart and undermine the COUNTY JUDGMENT and other creditors. It is marked by fraud and collusion and was done in violation of the COUNTY JUDGMENT's agreed upon requirements." (X-Compl. at ¶ 25.)

LAW AND MOTION TENTATIVE RULINGS

DATE: AUGUST 13, 2026 TIME: 8:30 A.M.

The County brought a motion for summary judgment as to plaintiffs' first amended complaint, which this Court granted on February 2, 2024. Plaintiffs appealed the order; the Sixth Appellate District dismissed the notice of appeal without prejudice, as premature and/or taken from a non-appealable order.

On March 11, 2026, the County filed this motion for summary adjudication to the first two causes of action in its cross-complaint for fraudulent transfer and constructive fraudulent transfer. The Court requested and received further briefings from the parties to explain the need for this motion given that the Court already granted the County's motion for summary judgment. The County asserts that the Court should resolve the issues raised in its motion for summary adjudication because a successful MSA will allow the County to dismiss the remaining causes of action and obtain one final judgment, which would be necessary for appeal. (County's Supp. Brief at p. 2.) Cross-defendants assert that "the case is over pursuant to CCP § 583.310" because the crossclaims were not brought to trial within five years.³ Cross-defendants argue that the stipulated judgment in the Writ Case governs claims for Granny Purps' liabilities, not this case. The parties previously filed substantive moving papers, opposition, and reply to the County's motion for summary adjudication.

II. SUMMARY ADJUDICATION STANDARD

Summary adjudication lies when one or more causes of action have merit; one or more claims for damages has no merit; there is no merit to a claim for punitive damages; there is no affirmative defense (or merit to affirmative defenses) to one or more causes of action or claim for damages; or that one or more defendants either owed or did not owe a duty to plaintiffs. (Weil & Brown Civ. Proc. Before Trial (TRG 2025) § 10:32, Code Civ. Proc. § 437c, sub. (f)(1).)

"[T]he moving party bears the initial burden of production to make a prima facie showing that there are not triable issues of material fact. [Aguilar v. Atlantic Richfield Co. (2001) 24Cal.4th 826, 850]." (Weil & Brown Civ. Proc. Before Trial (TRG 2026) § 10:227.) In opposition to a motion for summary judgment/adjudication, the party "must produce admissible evidence raising a triable issue of fact. Claims and theories not supported by admissible evidence do not raise a triable issue. [Citations.]" (Id. at §10:253.1.)

³ Code of Civil Procedure section 583.310 states that "[a]n action shall be brought to trial within five years after the action is commenced against the defendant." Section 583.360 provides that an action shall be dismissed by the court on its own motion or upon "motion of the defendants, after notice of the parties, if the action not brought to trial within the time prescribed in this article." Cross-defendants have not brought a noticed motion for involuntary dismissal of this action.

III. THE COUNTY'S MOTION

The County forwards three issues in its motion: (1) that the assignments from Granny Purps to Jeffrey Sudman and then from Sudman from Canna Consulting are voidable because of cross-defendants' actual fraud; (2) the good faith defense is not available Jeffrey Sudman or Canna Consulting; and (3) Granny Purps', Nancy Blacks' and Jeffrey Sudman's assignment of the "chose in action" are voidable because the assignments were constructively fraudulent,

The County cites the Uniform Voidable Transactions Act which it argues is designed to prevent debtors from placing property, that should be reachable to creditors, beyond their reach. (Memorandum of Points and Authorities ("MPA") at p. 11.) The County maintains that "a transfer made or obligation incurred by a debtor is voidable as to a creditor, whether the creditor's claim arose before or after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred, if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligations with the actual intent to hinder, delay or defraud a creditor. (Civ. Code § 3429.04(a)(1).)" (MPA at p. 12.) The County argues the assignments caused the potential proceeds from this litigation to be moved out of its hands (the creditor) and to Canna Consulting, who was not part of the stipulated judgment.

The County maintains the court looks to a list of factors pursuant to Civil Code section 3439.04 to determine when a transfer is voidable:

"(a) A transfer made or obligation incurred by a debtor is voidable as to a creditor, whether the creditor's claim arose before or after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred, if the debtor made the transfer or incurred the obligation as follows:

(1) With actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor of the debtor.

(2) Without receiving a reasonably equivalent value in exchange for the transfer or obligation, and the debtor either:

(A) Was engaged or was about to engage in a business or a transaction for which the remaining assets of the debtor were unreasonably small in relation to the business or transaction.

(B) Intended to incur, or believed or reasonably should have believed that the debtor would incur, debts beyond the debtor's ability to pay as they became due.

(b) In determining actual intent under paragraph (1) of subdivision (a), consideration may be given, among other factors, to any or all of the following:

(1) Whether the transfer or obligation was to an insider.

LAW AND MOTION TENTATIVE RULINGS

DATE: AUGUST 13, 2026 TIME: 8:30 A.M.

(2) Whether the debtor retained possession or control of the property transferred after the transfer.

(3) Whether the transfer or obligation was disclosed or concealed.

(4) Whether before the transfer was made or obligation was incurred, the debtor had been sued or threatened with suit.

(5) Whether the transfer was of substantially all the debtor's assets.

(6) Whether the debtor absconded.

(7) Whether the debtor removed or concealed assets.

(8) Whether the value of the consideration received by the debtor was reasonably equivalent to the value of the asset transferred or the amount of the obligation incurred.

(9) Whether the debtor was insolvent or became insolvent shortly after the transfer was made or the obligation was incurred.

(10) Whether the transfer occurred shortly before or shortly after a substantial debt was incurred.

(11) Whether the debtor transferred the essential assets of the business to a lienor that transferred the assets to an insider of the debtor.

(c) A creditor making a claim for relief under subdivision (a) has the burden of proving the elements of the claim for relief by a preponderance of the evidence.”

IV. MATERIAL FACTS ARE NOT IN DISPUTE

Each material fact must have a citation to supporting evidence. (Code of Civ. Proc. § 437c(b)(1).)

The following facts proffered by the County are not disputed by cross-defendants:

- That the County has a right to payment from Granny Purps, Jeffrey Sudman, Nancy Black, and Nancy Sudman for $1,672,500.00 before accrued interest, pursuant to the judgment entered against them in case number 17CV00837.
- On October 1, 2017, Nancy Black, on behalf of Granny Purps, transferred all rights, title and interest in Santa Cruz County Superior Court case no. 16CV01899 from Granny Purps to Jeffrey Sudman.

LAW AND MOTION TENTATIVE RULINGS

DATE: AUGUST 13, 2026 TIME: 8:30 A.M.

- On November 20, 2017, Jeffrey Sudman transferred all rights, title, and interest in case no. 16CV01899 to Canna Consulting, Inc. (UMF nos. 1-3.)

The County provides evidence relating to the various “badges” or indicia of fraud as outlined by Civil Code section 3439.04: that the transfers were made to insiders in the company, that the debtors retained control of the “chose-in action”, that Granny Purps and Jeffrey Sudman concealed their assignments while actively litigating the underlying case on appeal; that the transfers constituted substantially all of debtors’ assets; that the value Granny Purps, Black and the Sudmans received from their assignments was not reasonably equivalent to the value; that the assignment from Granny Purps to Jeffrey Sudman occurred 10 days before the parties signed the stipulated judgment in the Writ Case; that the assignments were an essential asset of Granny Purps; and that the Assignments ran afoul of the stipulated judgment in the Writ Case. (UMF Nos. 1-18.) “To prove intent to hinder, delay, or defraud creditors, it is not necessary to show that [debtor] had a desire to harm their creditors. Plaintiff need only show that [debtor] intended to remove or conceal assets to make it more difficult for [its] creditors to collect payment.” (CACI 4200.) “Whether a debtor had the actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud a creditor is a question of fact.” (Aghaian v. Minassian (2020) 59 Cal.App.5th 447, 456.) “Among other so-called ‘badges of fraud’ indicating such intent [Citation] the fact finder may consider whether: (1) the debtor made the transfer to an ‘insider’; (2) the debtor retained possession or control of the property after the transfer; (3) the debtor had been sued before making the transfer; (4) the debtor removed or concealed assets; (5) the value of the consideration received by the debtor was reasonably equivalent to the value of the asset transferred; and (6) the transfer occurred shortly before or shortly after a substantial debt was incurred (§ 3439.04, subd. (b)). None of these factors is determinative, and no minimum or maximum number of factors is required.” (Aghaian, supra, 59 Cal.App.5th at p. 456.)

There is no dispute that Jeffrey Sudman was CEO of Granny Purps and after he resigned, he continued to work for Granny Purps. Nancy Black is Jeffrey Sudman’s mother-in-law; the two resided together until 2019. (UMF no. 4.) Similarly, the second transfer from Jeffrey Sudman to Canna Consulting was made to another “insider”, as Jeffrey Sudman is the owner, officer, and director of Canna Consulting. (UMF no. 5.) The County asserts that Granny Purps, Nancy Black, and Jeffrey Sudman retained control of the chose in action, which is another “badge of fraud.” The County’s supporting evidence for this is found in UMF numbers 4-6: that Jeffrey Sudman was the CEO of Granny Purps and continued working there; that Jeffrey Sudman owns Canna Consulting, Inc. and is its sole corporate officer and director; that Canna Consulting has no income, no business activities and that it has not created corporate documents since its formation nor held meetings or prepared minutes. Jeffrey Sudman testified that he uses personal funds to keep Canna Consulting, Inc. active. Jeffrey Sudman was heavily involved in Granny Purps as well as Canna Consulting, which became the plaintiff in this case. The Court finds the

DATE: AUGUST 13, 2026 TIME: 8:30 A.M.

County satisfied its prima facie burden in establishing the voidability of the assignments and the lack of a good faith defense.

The burden then shifts to cross-defendants to raise a triable issue. The only evidence that cross-defendants provide to raise a triable issue is a declaration from Nancy Sudman. While she is a party to this action as a cross-defendant, she was not involved in any of the assignments. There are no declarations from Jeffrey Sudman or Nancy Black, who are the two individuals directly involved in the assignments. By her own deposition testimony, Nancy Sudman resigned her position as corporate officer on December 1, 2016, the same day Jeffrey Sudman resigned. When asked if she continued to do anything for Granny Purps, she testified that she did not perform any further duties for Granny Purps other than be supportive and help in the kitchen. (Ex. 1 to Decl. of Sewistksy.) After Nancy and Jeffrey Sudman resigned, Nancy Black took on the corporate roles at Granny Purps. (Ex. 1. to Decl. of Sewitsky.) The Court does not find that Nancy Sudman's declaration raises a triable issue because it lacks personal knowledge, is speculative, and lacks foundation. Her declaration that the assignments were not done with fraudulent intent is not fact as she had no personal involvement in the assignments and had no official role in the company at the time the assignments were carried out.

The motion for summary adjudication is granted as to the first and second causes of action for fraudulent transfer and constructive fraudulent transfer. The Court anticipates that the County will dismiss the balance of its cross-complaint based upon this decision, and that the County will be simultaneously submitting the proposed order based upon this tentative, a dismissal, and proposed judgment.

The County's Objections to the Declaration of Nancy Sudman

Objections 1- 8 are sustained as the statements are speculative and lack personal knowledge.
