

standard in California is whether the notice "has a reasonable chance of reaching a substantial percentage of class members." Wershba v. Apple Computer (2001) 91 Cal. App. 4th 224, 251. The Court notes the following issues with the Class Notice that will need to be corrected prior to mailing: 1) Under sections 7 and 9, remove reference to accessing documents on the Court's website. Shasta County Superior Court currently does not provide this option. Individuals may access public documents in person at the Court at any time during normal business hours; 2) Item 3.2.C. at page 24 of the proposed Class Notice indicates costs of up to $21,000 for settlement administration. This figure must be revised to up to $15,000. Following the changes noted above, the Class Notice is approved for mailing in the manner described in the Settlement Agreement.

The Motion for Preliminary Approval is GRANTED as outlined above. Based on the timeline, it appears that a Final Approval Hearing on Monday, December 7, 2026, at 8:30 a.m. in Department 64 would provide sufficient time. Absent a request for a different date, the Court will calendar the Final Approval Hearing as noted. A proposed order has been lodged and will be executed.

MACY'S VS. BLUE-CHIP 2000 COMMERCIAL CLEANING, INC.

CASE NUMBER: 25CV-0209277

Tentative Ruling on Motion to Continue Trial: Defendant Blue Chip 2000 Commercial Cleaning, Inc. moves for a continuance of the trial date and all related deadlines. The motion is unopposed. The Court notes that Defendant has filed a Joint Stipulation to Continue Trial as Exhibit B to the Declaration of Saima Aslam. The Joint Stipulation is signed by counsel for both parties and requests a trial date of March 29, 2027, or the first available date thereafter for trial.

To ensure the prompt disposition of civil cases, the dates assigned for a trial are firm. All parties and their counsel must regard the date set for trial as certain. CRC 3.1332(a). "Although continuances of trials are disfavored, each request for a continuance must be considered on its own merits. The court may grant a continuance only on an affirmative showing of good cause requiring the continuance." CRC 3.1332(c). The Court finds good cause for continuance under CRC 3.1332. Discovery is in its early stages. Plaintiff is still treating for her injuries. No prior continuances have been requested. Discovery will remain open and deadlines will flow from the continued trial date.

The motion is GRANTED. The trial set for October 20, 2026, and the Mandatory Settlement Conference set for August 24, 2026, are VACATED. The matter is set for trial on Tuesday, March 30, 2027, at 8:45 a.m. in Department 64. The matter is also set for a Mandatory Settlement Conference on Monday, January 25, 2027, at 1:30 p.m. in Department 64. Remote appearances are permitted for the Mandatory Settlement Conference. The proposed order will be modified and executed by the Court.
