8:30 a.m. – Case Management Conference

SIERRA PACIFIC WAGE AND HOUR CASES

Case Number: 5235

Tentative Ruling on Case Management Conference: The Court has reviewed the Case Management Conference Statements filed by all parties.

Smith Matter. The parties intend to further meet and confer and submit a Stipulation and Order setting a hearing date and briefing schedule for a Motion for Class Certification. Because this matter must be special set, the parties are to coordinate with the Court’s Judicial Assistant regarding the hearing date prior to submitting a Stipulation and Order. Plaintiff reports that the parties are working toward a possible individual settlement. If the Court can be of any assistance or if either party would like to set a Mandatory Settlement Conference, the Court can special set the matter.

McDonald Matter. SPI’s Motion for Reconsideration is calendared for June 25, 2026. Plaintiff has requested an Informal Discovery Conference regarding the Motion for Reconsideration and other pending discovery issues. The parties are ordered to meet and confer prior to the hearing regarding whether both parties are amenable to an Informal Discovery Conference on the issues raised by Plaintiff. Although with the current hearing date of June 25, 2026, the Court has very limited availability for an Informal Discovery Conference. Plaintiff raised the issue of there being no proposed Order submitted with the Motion for Reconsideration. A proposed Order is required by Local Rule of Court 5.17(D).

SPI requests that Plaintiff file a Trial Plan as described in Section B.3. of SPI’s Case Management Conference Statement. The parties are ordered to meet and confer regarding this request and be prepared to discuss it at today’s hearing.

The Court intends to set a further Case Management Conference. SPI and Plaintiff Smith request 90-120 days and Plaintiff McDonald requests June 25, 2026. Going forward, the Court requests that Case Management Conference Statements be filed at least five days prior to the hearing. An appearance by all parties is necessary on today’s calendar.
