

ANTHONY SMITH vs. HARSHAD B. WADHAR, MD
Case No. CU24-07285

Plaintiff's Motion to Compel Further Responses to Requests for Production, Set Three

TENTATIVE RULING

Plaintiff ANTHONY SMITH's motion to compel Defendant HARSHAD B. WADHAR, M.D.'s further responses to Plaintiff's requests for production, set three, is denied. Defendant served his responses to Plaintiff's requests for production by mail on August 20, 2025, giving Plaintiff fifty days to move to compel further responses. (Code Civ. Proc., §§ 1013, 2033.290, subd. (c).) This set Plaintiff's motion deadline at October 9, 2025. Plaintiff did not file his motion – even measured from the time that he submitted the motion to prison authorities per the “prison mailbox rule” – until October 21, 2025.

LLANA RAMOS vs. INFINITE COMPUTER SOLUTIONS, INC.
Case No. CU24-09034

Motion for Preliminary Approval of PAGA & Class Action Settlement

TENTATIVE RULING

The Parties are to appear.

The Parties should be prepared to discuss paragraph 8 of the settlement agreement, CLASS SIZE ESTIMATE.

RUBY ARIAS GARZA vs. ADOLFO M. SANDRIA; ET AL.
Case No. CU25-03026

Motion to Compel Plaintiff to Appear at Deposition

TENTATIVE RULING

The Parties are to appear. At the hearing, the Court's tentative ruling is as follows:

Defendant's unopposed motion to compel Plaintiff's deposition is granted. Plaintiff is ordered to attend her deposition on a date set by Defendant no later than fifteen days following the date of service of this order. The Court imposes sanctions upon Plaintiff in the amount of $1,362.25 which are due and payable within thirty days after service of this order.
