PR25-00430

Mediation Review

Notice of Motion and Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings

PREGRANT ORDER

This matter was continued to allow the parties to attend further court-sponsored mediation. The court notes that the Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings was re-filed on February 13, 2026.

Counsel and parties may appear via Zoom, in person, or by CourtCall and address the following:

Status and outcome of further mediation.

As to the Motion for Judgment on the Pleadings:

The court grants the motion for judgment on the pleadings per Code of Civil Procedure section 438 with leave to amend. The petitioner lacks standing to bring this action as she is not a named beneficiary or trustee of the trust. The language about the deceased co-trustee Hiawatha Roberts dividing the trust estate at his discretion “between the family members” is too nebulous to confer standing, and the “family members” are unnamed in both the original trust and the purported amendment. The petitioner’s relationship to Hiawatha Roberts does not, by itself, confer standing under Probate Code section 48. Her allegation that Hiawatha’s election to have the Texas farmland distributed to him does not confer standing on her as to the trust itself. The petitioner does not allege or demonstrate that she has been appointed as the representative of her father’s estate. The petitioner must file her amended complaint no later than 30 days from the date of this ruling.
