TENTATIVE RULINGS SCHEDULED FOR
TUESDAY, JUNE 30, 2026

The parties may appear via Zoom with the exception of trials, trial management conferences, order for examinations and mandatory settlement conferences. The information for the Zoom meeting is set forth below.

The tentative ruling shall become the ruling of the court unless a party desiring to be heard contacts the judicial assistant of the department hearing the matter by 4:30 p.m. on the court day preceding the hearing, and further advises that such party has notified the other side of its intention to request a hearing. A party requesting a hearing must notify all parties of the request to be heard by 4:30.

GEICO INDEMNITY COMPANY v. GRIMM
Case No. cl24-02778

Motion by Defendant to Pay Judgment in Installments

TENTATIVE RULING

After the filing of this motion in January 2026, the parties executed and the court signed in April a stipulation and order to pay off the judgment in installments.

The court presumes that a certified copy of the stipulation and order can be submitted to the DMV (if it has not already been submitted), as part of the process to reinstate Defendant's driver's license (as long as he continues to make the installment payments as they become due, and maintains vehicle insurance in the amount required under California law). Vehicle Code §16379.

The court therefore denies this motion as moot.

CAPITAL ONE BANK (USA), NA v. DEDRICK WEATHERSBY
Case No. CL24-08020

Motion for Entry of Judgment Under Terms of Stipulated Settlement

TENTATIVE RULING

Reflecting due process concerns, service of a motion affecting the rights of a defendant who has not appeared in an action typically is required to be made in the same manner as required for service of summons and complaint. (See, e.g., applications for writs of attachment [Code Civ. Proc, § 482.070, subd. (d)]; applications for writs of possession [Code Civ. Proc., § 512.030, subd. (b)].) Defendant filed no responsive pleading in this action identifying an address of record. The court is not satisfied that the mailing address Plaintiff used for service of notice of motion is a good way to reach Defendant. The stipulation for entry of judgment does not list an address for Defendant. The court particularly notes that the address used for personal service of summons and complaint is not the address used for service of notice of motion.

The court denies this motion without prejudice due to the above-stated issues. Plaintiff is advised to effect service of future motion papers on Defendant in a manner authorized for service of summons and complaint, at least sixteen court days prior to the continued hearing date.
