Matter of Roger Fields Trust

SPR091136

Case Management Conference

Tentative Ruling: NO APPEARANCES REQUIRED. The Court has been informed that the bankruptcy proceedings have concluded, but the bankruptcy court has not yet issued a final order. In light of the fact the bankruptcy court granted petitioner a judgment in her favor in the bankruptcy Adversary Proceeding, any debt not satisfied through distribution from the bankruptcy estate will remain subject to collection. Counsel for petitioner represents the following agreement has been reached in light of this: Debtor respondent will appear at petitioner's counsel's office before a Certified Court Reporter authorized to administer oaths at a mutually agreed upon date within sixty days of the bankruptcy court's issuance of the final order to give testimony and provide documents that will assist petitioner in the collection of any unsatisfied judgment. Counsel will meet and confer concerning the documents debtor respondent will produce at the examination, and if they are unable to agree petitioner will request an order requiring the production of particular documents at the examination. The Court approves the agreement and in light of it, CONTINUES this matter to October 8, 2026 at 3:00 p.m. in Department 12, for confirmation that the examination has occurred.
