Estate of Sarah Louise Levy

24PR00589

Case Management Conference

Tentative Ruling: NO APPEARANCES REQUIRED. This matter is CONTINUED to October 22, 2026, at 3:00 p.m. in Dept. 63 for status of accounting.

There is presently no active petition pending before the Court. The Court's judgment filed June 24, 2026, is now stayed as a result of a notice of appeal filed July 28, 2026. To preserve the status quo pending appeal, the Court will likely order the special administrator to deposit any cash assets marshalled with the county treasurer, after her accounting is submitted and approved, discharge her, and leave it to the parties to complete probate at some future time in order to obtain an order of distribution and claim the funds on deposit. Should a remittitur issue that directs further proceedings in this case, the funds on deposit could then be administered in this matter after further proceedings. The Court is aware there are illiquid assets, but there is no basis to administer them in the absence of a pending petition, and such new expanded proceedings are now inappropriate in light of the appeal.

The Court has reviewed the only statements of issues filed by petitioner Michelle Levy and the Special Administrator but is not inclined to order mediation ala Breslin given the stay in effect resulting from the appeal, lack of agreement by all heirs (which may include intestate heirs not previously provided notice of these proceedings), or a noticed motion.

The letters of special administration are extended on the same terms and conditions and will now expire on October 30, 2026. No further order is required, but special administrator is directed to submit new amended letters.
