Motion to Temporarily Stay Non-Judicial Foreclosure Proceeding

Tentative Ruling: NO APPEARANCES REQUIRED. The order granting the petitioner's ex parte request to issue a temporary restraining order (TRO) of non-judicial foreclosure proceedings required petitioner to:

1) Prepare and lodge an order to show cause (OSC) within three court days of June 16, 2026, when the Court granted the temporary stay; and

2) Serve the OSC on all parties entitled to notice including the lender, and file a proof of service at least two days prior to the hearing.

The June 16, 2026 order also stated: "As there is no request for preliminary injunction the TRO issued by this order will automatically terminate at the next hearing unless one is filed and served by the moving party."

The petitioner has not filed anything since the Court's June 16, 2026 order was issued. No OSC has been signed by the Court, no motion for preliminary injunction and no proof of service has been filed. The TRO is therefore VACATED and this hearing is DROPPED from calendar.
