County: stanislaus

Division: Civil Law and Motion

Department: 23

Hearing date: 2012-04-02

Motion: The Court finds that Defendant has demonstrated the existence of an agreement to arbitrate which encompasses the claims at issue herein. (Code Civ. Proc. § 1281.2.) However, the Court also notes that the arbitration agreement contains a delegation clause, which appears to assign the determination of enforcement issues, such as the unconscionability arguments raised by Plaintiff herein, exclusively to the arbitrator. As neither party's papers has addressed the significance of the delegation clause here, the Court has determined to continue the matter, as above, and offer the parties the opportunity to address this issue via supplemental briefing. Therefore, each party may submit a supplemental brief, no longer than 5 pages in length and limited to a discussion of the subject delegation clause, no later than August 21, 2026.
