

FL-25-001274 POULOS VS POULOS

County: stanislaus

Division: Family Law

Department: 25

Hearing date: 2026-07-13

Motion: Attorney for Respondent's Motion to Be Relieved—HEARING REQUIRED. While the Court finds that the grounds for involuntary withdrawal have been sufficiently averred, and that granting relief is unlikely to result in prejudice to the client given the current procedural posture, counsel for Respondent served the moving papers by mail and electronically, but counsel's declaration concedes that verification of the address for mail service has not been possible within the preceding three months and there is no consent for electronic service on file for Respondent. This is technically insufficient service under the Rules of Court but the Court may override this for good cause and invites counsel for Respondent, and Respondent should the client have received actual notice, to appear and be heard. (Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 3.1362(d).)

Source URL: <https://www.stanislaus.courts.ca.gov/online-services/tentative-rulings/family-law-tentative-rulings>

Source SHA-256: 88a128f60490ba41d1db2b71e142e0dae7d48ad1ae7569edfe2bd87ee334f5cd

FL-25-001274 – POULOS VS POULOS

Attorney for Respondent's Motion to Be Relieved—HEARING REQUIRED.

While the Court finds that the grounds for involuntary withdrawal have been sufficiently averred, and that granting relief is unlikely to result in prejudice to the client given the current procedural posture, counsel for Respondent served the moving papers by mail and electronically, but counsel's declaration concedes that verification of the address for mail service has not been possible within the preceding three months and there is no consent for electronic service on file for Respondent. This is technically insufficient service under the Rules of Court but the Court may override this for good cause and invites counsel for Respondent, and Respondent should the client have received actual notice, to appear and be heard. (Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 3.1362(d).)