

FL-25-001835 GAYLORD VS GAYLORD

County: stanislaus

Division: Family Law

Department: 25

Hearing date: 2026-07-14

Motion: Continued Hearing on Petitioner's Request for Order re Temporary Exclusive Management and Control, etc.—HEARING REQUIRED. This case was formally designated "complex" pursuant to Family Code section 2032(d) pursuant to the Amended Findings and Order After Hearing of September 11, 2025. It is apparent to the Court that the continued conflict and disputes regarding operation and management of the subject community property businesses at issues is a significant impediment to the expeditious and orderly disposition of this matter. Transferring operational management and control from one of the parties to the other is unlikely to improve this situation, in the Court's view, and more likely to result in further accusations and conflict. Accordingly, the Court gives notice to the parties and their respective counsel of record of the Court's intent to consider the appointment of a neutral receiver to assume temporary management and control, and invites counsel to be heard and to address whether the reference will be made voluntarily by stipulation or over objection for good cause, if such be found.
