Motion to be Admitted Pro Hac Vice

Tentative Rulings. Parties and counsel appearing for oral argument should address the tentative decision. Parties may submit on the tentative decision by email, with a copy to all other parties in the matter, to courtroom21@ventura.courts.ca.gov before 8:00 a.m. on the day set for the hearing, with a subject line that includes “SUBMISSION ON TENTATIVE”, Case Number, Title and Party. If fewer than all parties submit on the tentative, the hearing will proceed, and the tentative ruling is subject to change. The clerk cannot advise if you should still appear or not. The decision of whether to appear for a hearing is to be made by the parties and their counsel. (Dept. 21 Rules & Procedures, p. 4, § II.I.)

The following is a statement of the Court’s tentative ruling. The Court may adopt, modify or reject the tentative ruling after hearing. The tentative ruling has no legal effect unless and until adopted by the Court.

Motion: Application by Defendants Macy’s Retail Holdings, LLC and Luis Nunez (collectively, “Defendants”) for an order admitting Katharine Flynn Lessaris (“Lessaris” or “Applicant”) to appear pro hac vice.

Tentative Ruling: Defendants’ application for an order admitting Katharine Flynn Lessaris to appear pro hac vice is GRANTED.

The Applicant previously filed a declaration in support of the application addressing the required information in Rule 9.40(d)(1) through (d)(6). The Court is now satisfied that the State Bar of California has been properly served with notice of this hearing, and the $50.00 fee has been paid.

Additionally, the Applicant declares facts to show that she is not a resident of this state, she is not regularly employed in this state, and she has not applied to appear pro hac vice in California in the past two years, and she is in good standing in the jurisdictions where she is licensed.

Accordingly, the application has merit. The application is GRANTED.

Counsel for Defendants to give notice within two (2) court days.
