Case Number: 25STCV35158 Hearing Date: July 13, 2026 Dept: 517

Defendant 1032 N. Sycamore Owner (LA) LLC ("1032") has filed an ex parte application to stay the civil action that Plaintiff Zeus Realty Group LLC ("Zeus") brought against it pending resolution of the unlawful detainer action that 1032 brought against Zeus. The unlawful detainer action has been stalled because of the inability of 1032 to effectuate valid service on Zeus of the summons and complaint in that action. Today, in the unlawful detainer action, the Court is denying Zeus's motions to quash service on Zeus that 1032 says it effectuated through two different means. With the denial of those motions, the Court has concluded that 1032's service of the summons and complaint in the unlawful detainer action is valid. The Court is thus granting 1032's ex parte application to stay the civil action pending resolution of the unlawful detainer action.

The motion for protective order, motion to compel further responses to discovery, and motion to bifurcate that Zeus filed in the civil action and that are fully briefed are continued to August 7, 2026. The civil action is on calendar that day for discovery motions that 1032 filed. Those other discovery motions will not be heard that day.

By August 7, 2026, the Court and parties likely will know if the unlawful detainer action is proceeding apace or whether, a per a demurrer to it that Zeus filed and is set for hearing on July 29, 2026, that action has been dismissed or stalled again. If the unlawful detainer action proceeds past that demurrer, then the Court will discuss with counsel a trial date and a schedule for discovery in that action.

Zeus's own ex parte application that is on calendar today in the civil action is denied without prejudice in light of the Court's decision to grant 1032's ex parte applicaiton to stay the civil action pending resolution of the unlawful detainer action.
