Plaintiff Jie Liu ("Plaintiff") moves for an order compelling defendant Zhang Yanyan ("Defendant") to provide further responses to Special Interrogatories, Set One.

On a motion to compel further responses, the objecting party has the burden of justifying its objections and showing why a further response is not needed. (Coy v. Superior Court (1962) 58 Cal.2d 210; Williams v. Superior Court (2017) 3 Cal.5th 531, 541.) Defendant did not oppose this motion and did not show why further responses should not be ordered.

Accordingly, the unopposed motion is GRANTED and the Court ORDERS Defendant to serve further verified responses, without objection, to Special Interrogatories, Set One, Nos. 1, 6, 7, 12, 15, 23, 30, and 32 within 20 days of the date of this Order.

The request for sanctions in the notice of motion is DENIED as defective because it does not identify the person, party, or attorney against whom the sanction is sought. (Code Civ. Proc., § 2023.040.)

Plaintiff to give notice.

Parties who intend to submit on this tentative must send an email to the Court at indicating intention to submit on the tentative as directed by the instructions provided on the court website at www.lacourt.org. Please be advised that if you submit on the tentative and elect not to appear at the hearing, the opposing party may nevertheless appear at the hearing and argue the matter. Unless you receive a submission from all other parties in the matter, you should assume that others might appear at the hearing to argue. If the Court does not receive emails from the parties indicating submission on this tentative ruling and there are no appearances at the hearing, the Court may, at its discretion, adopt the tentative as the final order or place the motion off calendar.
