Case Number: 22STCV41098 Hearing Date: August 6, 2026 Dept: 734

Plaintiff

alleges that a grant deed was forged conveying Plaintiff's properties, which was then encumbered, all without Plaintiff's authorization. Plaintiff brings a quiet title action.

Attorney

Eideh Manavi moves to be relieved as counsel for Plaintiff Cynthia Beck.

TENTATIVE RULING

The Court would be inclined to grant the motion for the reasons set forth in the moving papers. However, the motion indicates that counsel's communications with Plaintiff have been via email, and there is no physical address for Plaintiff set forth in any of the moving papers. Thus, if the Court grants the motion, there would be no physical address for other parties (or the Court) to use as the address to serve documents relating to the case. Rule of Court 2.253 provides that courts may not require a self-represented party to comply with electronic filing and service requirements, and the Court cannot grant a motion to relieve Plaintiff's counsel that would result in the inability to serve documents on Plaintiff.

Unless moving counsel provides evidence that Plaintiff has agreed to accept electronic service of documents, or alternatively, provides a valid mailing address at which Plaintiff may be served, the Court will be unable to grant the motion. If Plaintiff does not provide either of these alternatives, the Court may have no choice but to consider the issuance of an order to show cause why the complaint should not be dismissed for lack of prosecution.
