Meet and Confer Efforts

A motion to compel a further response to interrogatories, requests for production of documents, or requests for admission must be accompanied by a meet and confer declaration. (CCP § 2030.300(b), § 2031.310(b); § 2033.290(b).) The declaration must state facts showing a “reasonable and good faith attempt, either in person, by telephone, or by videoconference” to resolve informally the issues presented by the motion before filing the motion. (CCP § 2016.040(a).)

“The purpose of the meet and confer requirement is to force lawyers to reexamine their positions, and to narrow their discovery disputes to the irreducible minimum, before calling upon the court to resolve the matter.” (Weil & Brown, CPG: Civ. Proc. Before Trial (TRG 2026) § 8:1159 citing, Stewart v. Colonial Western Agency, Inc. (2001) 87 Cal.App.4th 1006, 1016-2017.) “Failing to make a “reasonable and good faith attempt” to resolve the issues informally before a motion to compel is filed constitutes a “misuse of the discovery process” for which monetary sanctions can be imposed. (Id. at § 8:1174.)
