

FL-25-002765 WELCH VS WELCH

County: stanislaus

Division: Family Law

Department: 25

Hearing date: 2026-08-06

Motion: Respondent's Request for Order re "Other," etc.—HEARING REQUIRED. The Court granted temporary orders and an Order Shortening Time (OST), including the requirement of personal service. As of this, there is no proof of personal service on file as to Petitioner. Before the Court will entertain the merits, either Respondent must seek a continuance for good cause to effectuate proper service or Petitioner and/or Petitioner's counsel of record must appear and waive any objection. Assuming the merits are reached, Respondent's counsel offers no authority for the multiple expensive and wide-reaching order requests involving electronic evidence. The Civil Discovery Act has specific rules and requirements for the production of electronic evidence, including limits on the nature and scope of such requests. There is no explanation tendered for why the already existing procedures available to Respondent have not been availed or why they would not obviate the need for the present order requests. As postured, the Court is inclined to deny all the requests without prejudice.
