

FL-18-002388 HUIZENGA VS HUIZENGA

County: stanislaus

Division: Family Law

Department: 14

Hearing date: 2026-08-06

Motion: Respondent's Request for Order re Child Custody, etc.—HEARING REQUIRED. Proof of personal service of Petitioner is on file and no Responsive Declaration has been filed. That said, Petitioner recently retained counsel of record and parties are entitled to be heard via live testimony at any hearing or trial and the Court desires to hear from Petitioner's counsel on this matter. The child custody and visitation requests are not eligible for tentative ruling and are scheduled for mediation. They are therefore not at issue here. The elisor request appears premature. Ordinarily, such requests relate to matters involving marital property or pension plans when these have been adjudicated by Court order. The failure to sign military forms requiring spousal consent may or may not be appropriate for an elisor but the pre-condition for any elisor request entails non-compliance with a court order or other judgment requiring such compliance. That has yet to occur. Counsel are therefore directed to meet and confer in good faith with respect to the elisor request and the Court is confident that this request may be resolved by stipulation. (Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 5.98(a).) The following are the tentative ruling cases calendared before Judge Maria Elena Ramos-Ratliff in Department #25:

Respondent's Request for Order re Child Custody, etc.—HEARING REQUIRED.

Proof of personal service of Petitioner is on file and no Responsive Declaration has been filed. That said, Petitioner recently retained counsel of record and parties are entitled to be heard via live testimony at any hearing or trial and the Court desires to hear from Petitioner's counsel on this matter.

The child custody and visitation requests are not eligible for tentative ruling and are scheduled for mediation. They are therefore not at issue here.

The elisor request appears premature. Ordinarily, such requests relate to matters involving marital property or pension plans when these have been adjudicated by Court order. The failure to sign military forms requiring spousal consent may or may not be appropriate for an elisor but the pre-condition for any elisor request entails non-compliance with a court order or other judgment requiring such compliance. That has yet to occur.

Counsel are therefore directed to meet and confer in good faith with respect to the elisor request and the Court is confident that this request may be resolved by stipulation. (Cal. Rules of Ct., rule 5.98(a).)
