On November 13, 2025, Respondent filed a Request for Order (RFO) seeking sanctions and further sentencing for Petitioner's noncompliance with court orders. The RFO was served by mail on January 13, 2026. It appears the Notice of Posting Tentative Ruling was not served with the RFO.

The parties appeared for the hearing on February 26, 2026 at which time the court found improper service of the RFO. Because the RFO deals with failure to comply with an Order to Show Cause (OSC), the RFO must be personally served as would an OSC. The court granted Respondent's request to continue to allow for proper service.

The RFO and the February 26th Minute Order were personally served on Petitioner on March 24, 2026.

Petitioner has not filed a Responsive Declaration to Request for Order.

Respondent is seeking the following: (1) Petitioner to be found in noncompliance with his sentence issued at the March 12, 2025 hearing; (2) Petitioner to be found in violation of his probation; (3) further sentencing; and (4) Family Code § 271 sanctions. Of note, Respondent seems to be referencing Petitioner as "Respondent" in her moving papers.

Respondent and her counsel appeared for the hearing on May 21, 2026. Petitioner failed to appear. The court found good cause to proceed in his absence and continued the matter to July 30, 2026 at 1:30 PM. The court issued a bench warrant for Petitioner, however, stayed the warrant pending the next hearing. The court reserved on Respondent's request for attorney's fees and sanctions.

All parties appeared for the hearing on July 30, 2026. The court advised Petitioner of his rights and appointed the Office of the Public Defender on his behalf. The court recalled the bench warrant and continued the matter for further arraignment. The court continued to reserve on Respondent's request for attorney's fees and sanctions.

The parties are ordered to appear for the hearing.

TENTATIVE RULING #11: THE PARTIES ARE ORDERED TO APPEAR FOR THE HEARING.

On June 12, 2026, Respondent filed a Request for Order (RFO) seeking to vacate the June 4, 2026 Judgment and enter a different judgment. Or, in the alternative, reconsider/clarify the June 4th Judgment. All required documents were served by mail on June 15, 2026.

Petitioner filed her Responsive Declaration to Request for Order on September 3, 2026. It was served by mail on September 14th. The court finds this to be late served pursuant to Civil Procedure section 1005(b), which states all opposition papers are to be filed and served at least nine court days before the hearing date. Section 12c states, “[w]here any law requires an act to be performed no later than a specified number of days before a hearing date, the last day to perform that act shall be determined by counting backward from the hearing date, excluding the day of the hearing as provided by Section 12.” Cal. Civ. Pro. § 12c. Section 1005(b) in conjunction with Section 12c would have made September 11th the last day to serve the responsive declaration. Because it was late-served the court has not read or considered this document.

Respondent is requesting the court either vacate, reconsider, or clarify its orders regarding (1) the $10,000 valuation of Little Hurricane, LLC; (2) the $33,000 valuation of Watts charges; and (3) vacate the intellectual property income-sharing order and replace it with a workable division as set forth in Section III.C.4 of Respondent’s motion. The Judgment was entered on June 4, 2026 as a result of the March 16, 2026 trial.

This matter is being continued to November 12, 2026 at 8:30am to be heard by Judge Oakley who was the sitting judge during trial in this matter.

TENTATIVE RULING #12: THIS MATTER IS BEING CONTINUED TO NOVEMBER 12, 2026 AT 8:30AM TO BE HEARD BY JUDGE OAKLEY WHO WAS THE SITTING JUDGE DURING TRIAL IN THIS MATTER.
